

IN MEMORY OF A SPECIAL

Son

It's sometimes hard to know why some things happen as they do for so much joy and happiness was centered around you

It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep you near You're thought about with pride, Son with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will still remain

With All My Love, Your Mother

The Obituary

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning, or crying or pain for the former things are passed away." - Revelation 21:4

Karl Wesley Delk, born September 20, 1968 to Mary L. Handon and the late Freeland James Delk, He transitioned on Friday, August 14, 2020 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

He grew up in and attended St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Shannon, North Carolina. He graduated from the Hoke County High School in Raeford, North Carolina in the graduating Class of 1986. He was employed by JP Stevens and Burlington Industries of Raeford, North Carolina until he became disabled.

He was a devoted son whom cared for his mother even dealing with his own illness. He will truly be missed.

Karl was preceded in death by his father, Freeland James Delk; a special nephew, Jereme D. Handon; and seven uncles: William Handon, Jr., James Handon, Modie Handon, Elijah Handon, Earl Handon, Moses Handon, and Fred Currie.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving mother, Mary L. Handon of the home; his beautiful sister, Sandra (Calverette) McQueen of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina. One devoted and loving niece, La Tesha Handon; an uncle, Eugene (Fay) Handon of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina; an aunt, Ethel B. Handon of Fort Washington, Maryland; a special friend, Annette Bolton of Fayetteville, North Carolina and a host of cousins and friends.

Missing You my Baby Brother,
Sandra
