Expressions of Gratitude

On behalf of the family, we would like to thank Bishop Ann T. Newell and The Soul Harvest Church Family for all of your help, prayers, and support throughout our mother's transition to Glory. Also, a special thank you to Bishop Joanie T. Greene, Apostle and Pastor Owens, Co-Pastor Ilene Evans, and Sonia Nash Kerr for your prayers, love, and support. Special thanks to two of our mother's hospice care team members, Kenza and Lee, for taking care of our mother with such great care, love and patience all the way to the very end.

Lastly, special thanks to Apostle Anthony Buie and the members of St. Joseph Miracle Revival Center for graciously allowing us to use to your facilities. It is our prayer that the Lord will bless you every step of the way.

The Obituary

"God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to me." With tearful eyes we watched you as you slowly slipped away and though we loved you dearly, we couldn't make you stay. Your golden heart stopped beating, your tired hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us that He only takes the best."

Mrs. Willie Mae Johnson Moore, was born July 17, 1943 in Lumberton, North Carolina to the late Isaiah Johnson and Katie Bention Johnson. She was the fourth of nine children.

At an early age she was baptized, and once she had a fuller knowledge of the love of God, and the redemptive work at Calvary, she was baptized in Jesus' Name in 2002.

Willie Mae received her secondary education in the Robeson County School System. She received an Associate of Religious Education at Christian Outreach Bible Institute in Fayetteville, North Carolina; graduated from Borough of Manhattan Community College in New York, New York with her Bachelors in Early Childhood; and a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Hudson University in New York, New York. She was an educator for over 30 years.

Willie Mae united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Harold Paul Moore and to this union four children were born. Mae loved her family, and she loved children; she loved to plant; she loved to crochet; and she loved to travel; and to cook. She received pleasure when others enjoyed her cooking. In fact, she served at several soup kitchens as the head cook.

Mother Willie Mae Moore attended several congregations during her life's journey. Once she returned to Fayetteville, she joined The Soul Harvest Apostolic Church, under the pastorate of Bishop Ann T. Newell.

She departed this earthly life early Sunday morning, August 30, 2020 in Concord, North Carolina, surrounded by her family. She was preceded in death by her parents: Isaiah Johnson and Katie Bention Johnson; her husband: Harold Paul Moore; son, Harold Kenneth Moore, Sr.; five sisters and brothers: Ruth Mae Jones, Leroy Jackson, Doretha McNeil, Mary Jane Johnson-Mickel (who was also her best friend), and Albert Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, her children: Jacqueline Rose Johnson, Dannie Moore (Yolanda), Prophetess Victoria Mercer (Tyrone); and Harold Kenneth Moore, Jr. (her adopted son); her siblings: Robert Johnson (Interim Pastor Eunice), Lauretha Lewis (Eddison), and Catherine Campbell; and her grandchildren whom she loved dearly: Darius Johnson, Yolonda Johnson, Maurice Johnson, Tiffany Johnson, Ashley Moore, Ebonie Moore, Nyasia Mercer, and Iyana Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends

Something Beautiful Remains

The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.

The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.

The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains....

*For every joy that passes,
something beautiful remains.*
