

The Day God Took You Home

*A million times
I've needed you
A million times I've cried,
If love alone
Could have saved you
you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
No one else can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
Part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*

Dear Sister in Heaven

*I sit here and ponder how very much. I would like to talk with you today,
There are so many things, that we did not get to say.*

*I know how much you care for me, and how much I care for you,
And each time I think of you, I know you will miss me too.*

*An angel came and took you by the hand and said your place was ready in heaven,
And you had to leave behind, all those you dearly loved.*

*You had so much to live for, you had so much to do
It still seems impossible that God was taking you.
And though your life on earth is past, in Heaven it starts anew.*

*You will live for all eternity, just as God had promised you.
And though you have walked through Heaven's gate,
We are never far apart, for every time I think of you
You are right there, deep within my heart.*

*Love your sister...
Nekita*

A Note to Aunt Shawn

*I thought I saw your face today in the sparkle of the morning sun. And then I heard the angel say, "My work on earth is done." I thought I heard your voice today singing in your lovey voice. And then I heard the angel say, "There's peace, at least." I thought I felt your touch today sweep across my face with a simple touch of grace, and then I heard the angel say, "The spirit never dies." I thought that you had left me for the stars so far above. And then I heard the angel say, "I left you with my love." I knew that I would miss you and never find my way. And then I heard the angel say, "I'm with you every day."
Love you, Nakerah*

Acknowledgements

We, the family of Mrs. Tiwanda Lashawn Hair acknowledge every prayer, visit, card, and service rendered, also every smile so tender. Each helped us to find the strength to bear the loss of the one we hold so dear. It was a great comfort indeed to see you in the time of our sorrow and needs; so from our hearts which you tried to help mend, we sincerely thank you again for being such wonderful friends. A special thank you to the Staff of East Robeson Primary School for your outpouring love.

Reflections of A Life Well Lived

Mrs. Tiwanda Lashawn Floyd Hair, the daughter of Deacon James Sterling and Deaconess Magdalene McMillan Floyd, was born on July 21, 1973 at Southeastern Regional Medical Center in Lumberton, North Carolina. She quietly embraced her Lord and Savior on Sunday afternoon, February 21, 2021 at First Health Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

She attended the Public Schools of Robeson County and graduated from Parkton High School in the graduating Class of 1991 where she was the Class Valedictorian, she matriculated to higher learning at Fayetteville State University in Fayetteville, North Carolina graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood, where she was also Valedictorian, also graduated from Grand Canyon University with her Master's Degree in School Administration, and was one class away from completing her Doctoral Degree. She was a devoted educator for nearly twenty-eight (28) years; serving two years with the Public Schools of Richmond County in Rockingham, North Carolina and later serving the remaining the twenty-six (26) years for the Public Schools of Robeson County at East Robeson Primary School in Lumberton, North Carolina having taught grades 2nd, 3rd, and kindergarten until her death.

"Shawn," as she was affectionately called by her family and closest friends, accepted Jesus Christ as Lord of her life at an early age and joined the New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church of Rex, North Carolina. There she worked diligently and faithful in the vineyard serving in many capacities such as: Vacation Bible School Director, Inspirational Choir Vice-President, member of the Mass Choir, Youth Director, Scholarship Committee member, Christian Education Committee member, and one of her deepest passions was serving as the Director of the Awanna Ministry. Her ministry didn't just stay confined within her local church, but she also served faithful on the Board of Christian Education for the Union Missionary Baptist Church Association.

Tiwanda was united in Holy Matrimony to David Earl Hair on January 19, 1997 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She was truly a devoted wife, supportive mother, daughter, sister, cousin, aunt, teacher, and friend. Preceding her in death was her brother, James Marcellus Floyd; her father-in-law, James Earl Hair; and sister-in-law, Rosemary Hair Smotherman.

She leaves to cherish her fondest and deepest memories: her faithful husband, David Earl Hair of the home; four sons: David D. Hair (Kendra) and Tacomah R. Hair both of the home; Brenden A. Hair (Micala) of Charlotte, North Carolina and Reverend Lance A. Hair of Parkton, North Carolina; three grandchildren: Ashlyn & Jayden Hair, Grayson Pitchford; her parents: Deacon James S. & Deaconess Magdalene Floyd of Rex, North Carolina; mother-in-law, Blonkita Shane (David) of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one sister, Nekita Floyd (Antonio) of Rex, North Carolina; three nieces: Nakerah Baxley, Sha'kya Floyd, and Ja'Meca Floyd; three nephews: James Floyd, Jerry Hardin, and Brian Wheeler; and the students and staff of East Robeson Primary School; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To A Loving Wife

Although our worlds are different now
Or is that just how it seems
For I see you when I close my eyes
Because you're always in my dreams

I know you're up in Heaven
And looking down on me
And when I look up at the stars
I know that's where you'll be

Even though I miss you
You're not too far away
Because my heart is full of memories
And I treasure them everyday

Our time on Earth was special
But it's only the very start
So please keep watching over me
While we're not so far apart

Someday the time will come
When I no longer feel this pain
That is the day when Heaven calls
And we will meet again

I Love You Baby....
Dave

We loved coming to your house spending time with you; it never mattered the occasion or what we had to do. For love was all around us and warmth was everywhere; and every moment we spent with you we felt your loving care.
