

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now. He set me free.

The Obituary

Retired Sgt. First Class Carl Davis, was born to the late Mattie Buie Davis and John D. Davis. He was born on July 3, 1936 in Robeson County, North Carolina. He departed this life on July 6, 2021 at Wickshire Creek Crossing Assisted Living in Raeford, North Carolina. After graduating from Peterson High School he joined the United States Army. During his career in the Army he served many tours including Vietnam and Korea. He received several medals and accolades during this time including the Bronze Star.

During his earthly time, he was a member of Panthersford Presbyterian Church and served as a Deacon. He retired from the Army after serving more than 20 years with most of his time in food services. His love for cooking continued after retirement as he enjoyed catering and cooking for family, friends, and church gatherings.

He is survived by his loving and devoted wife of more than 50 years Betty Davis; Two daughters: Carldetta LeMay of Franklinton, NC and Darlene Davis of Durham, NC. Two grandchildren: Everett Alexander LeMay and Lydia Faith Scott. Six brothers who preceded him in death: John D., Wilson, Thurman, Isiah, Neal and Prince Davis. Five sisters who preceded him in death: Rosa Lee Davis, Queen Ester Davis, Minnie Monroe, Mattie Beatty and Lula McNeill. Two sister-in-laws, Sharon Davis of Richmond, VA and Dorothy Miles of Bronx, NY. One brother-in-law Bobby Black of Durham, NC. A devoted great nephew Gregory Ray and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew the day; God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.
