Don’t spend much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus,
And this should make you glad.

Don’t waste your hours grieving,
No need to feel distress
I’m tired of life’s frustrations,
I had to get some rest.

Don’t vex yourself with questions,
Or try to reason or guess.
Earthly life has ended,
It came my time to rest.

Don’t lose the love I gave you,
Feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion,
And spread it everywhere.

Don’t fret because my leaving,
Came in such a way.
We will have another meeting,
In God’s eternal day.

Obituary

A good name is better than fine perfume and the day of death better than the day of birth... Ecclesiastes 7:1

Lula "Boobie" Lewis was born on November 17, 1953 to the late Leeiler Mobley and Paul L. Smith in Sylvania, GA. She was educated in the Screven County School System.

She was a faithful employee at Time Saver for over 20 years. At an early age, she accepted Christ at Ditch Pond Missionary Baptist Church. Later, she moved her membership to Steven Temple of Statesboro, GA where she served faithfully until her health began to decline. She was preceded in death by one brother and two sisters.

Lula made the transition to her heavenly home on Friday, February 24, 2017.

She leaves to cherish her memories: five sons that she raised as her own, Corrie L. Howard, Dric (Dana) Williams, James Levar Lewis all of Sylvania, GA, Dr. Reginald Lewis, MD of Chicago, IL and Darrin Jackson of Brooklyn, NY; two sisters, the very dedicated Veronica (Waldo) Jackson of Sylvania, GA and Lorance (Wilson) Johnson of Vidalia, GA; three brothers, Jack Smith of Port Ritchey, FL, Rev. Alonzo (Tiffany) Smith and Chester (Cassandra) Smith all of Vidalia, GA; one sister-in-law, Anne Mobley; two uncles, Bob (Lela) Williams and Govenor Williams all of Sylvania, GA; one aunt, Juanita Williams of Bronx, NY; a special friend, Holice Tarver, Sr.; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
