

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Mrs. Catherine Allison Brown was born on January 24, 1920 in Clover, South Carolina to the late William and Pearl Allison. She was the eighth of eleven children. She went home to be with the Lord on Friday April 7, 2017.

She was educated in the public schools of Clover, South Carolina. She worked in the food industry in both Clover, South Carolina and when she moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was also well-known for the special dishes that she prepared for special occasions at her church in Philadelphia.

Catherine gave her life to Christ at an early age and was baptized at Jerusalem Baptist Church in Clover, South Carolina where she was a faithful member until her death. Upon moving to Philadelphia, she joined Miller Memorial Baptist Church.

Mrs. Catherine Allison Brown leaves to cherish her memories and celebrate her life a host of family, church members and friends. Her nephew, Robert Miller, took special care of her needs when age and illness limited the tasks that she could no longer do on her own.

Her family thanks the Lord for her life and the many blessings she received.

Respectfully, submitted,
The family
