Obituary

Emma Christine Warren, known to most people as “Chris,” was born to the union of Adealia N. Jackson and Perry Lewis on March 31, 1953, in Shreveport, Louisiana. She grew up with two younger sisters. Her mother, father, and sister, Elvena G. Frierson, all preceded her in death.

Emma received her education in Los Angeles, California where she'd attended Compton Avenue Elementary School, Edwin Markham Junior High School, graduated the class of 1971 from David Starr Jordan High School and furthered her education at Los Angeles Southwest College.

Emma was united in marriage with Fred King Warren in November 1971 in Los Angeles, California. To this union, three children were born. Fred King Warren, Sr., preceded her in death (1995).

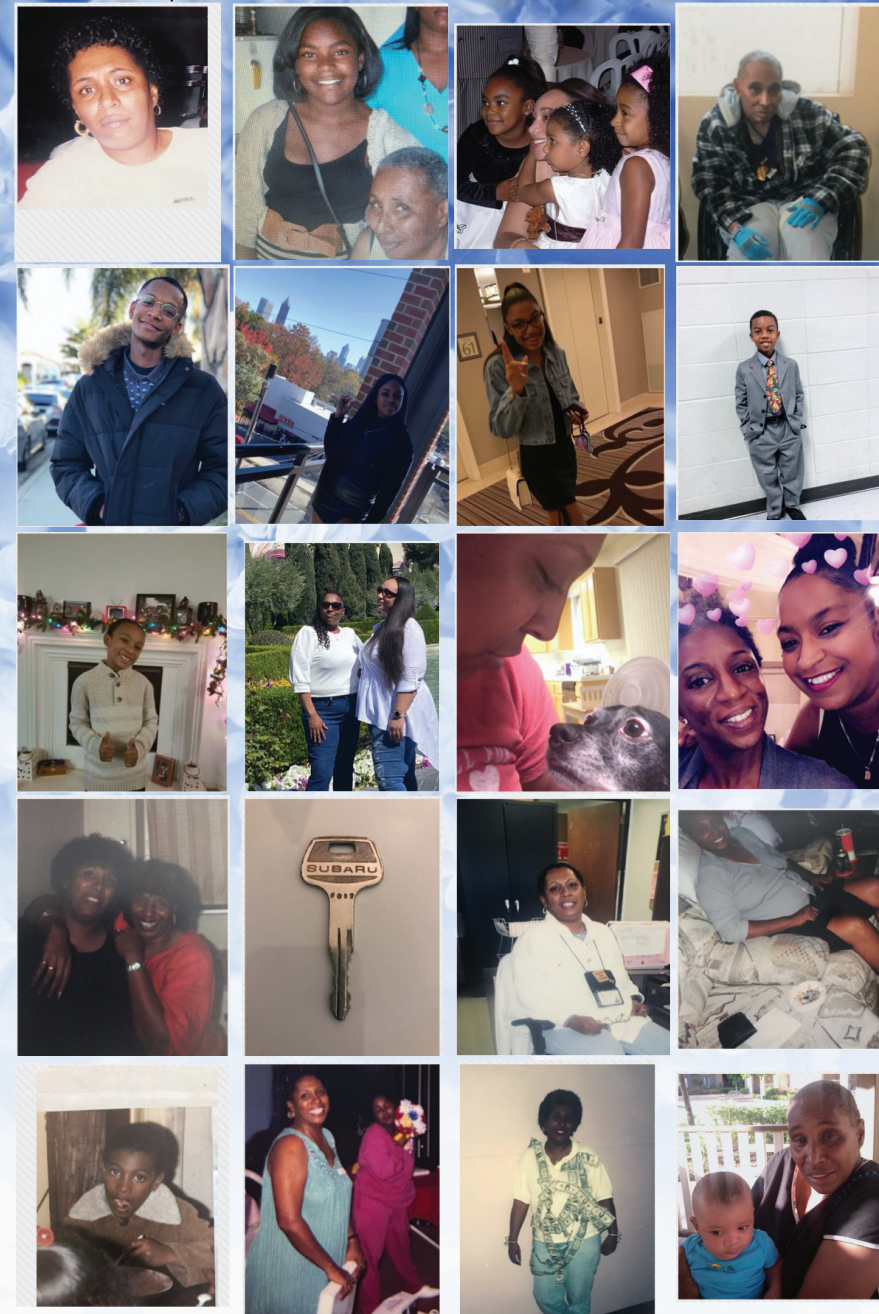

Emma started working in 1980 for the County of Los Angeles Department of Public Social Services division and then transferred to the In-Home Supportive Services Department in the latter part of her career until she retired in 2009.

Besides Emma enjoying her cable programs and sports, basketball and football in particular, she was one of the best cooks around. She was also known for not being afraid to tell you what was on her mind. Although she was at times a no-nonsense woman, she always maintained a soft heart when it came to the needs of her family and friends and giving them support.

God knew that Emma was needed here on Earth, but he had special plans for this Angel. On August 22, 2021, at 4:52 p.m., Emma transitioned from Earth to glory.

Emma leaves behind to cherish her memories: two daughters, Culinderia Bennett and Lakiesha Warren-Thompson (Donald); one son, Fred K. Warren, Jr. (Rebecca); one sister, Phyllis Johnson (Randall); three grandsons, Travon Wise, Jr., Warren R. Blacklock, and Fred K. Warren III (AKA “Tripple”); three granddaughters, Africa Johnson, Lauren Thompson, and Khyla Warren; special friends, Laverne Russeau, Mertha Archer, Linda Nelson, Clarissa Wallace, and Bella Baptiste; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, friends, and neighbors who will certainly miss her dearly.

Thank You, Momma!

Do you know how much you're loved...
and appreciated?

Remember all the hurts
you soothed

And all the broken dreams
you mended?

Remember all the encouraging
words

And smiles you gave,
Just when they were needed most?

Thank you for caring,

Thank you for loving,

Thank you for sharing so much of yourself... with so many!

Culindaria, Lakiesha, and Fred, Jr.

Granny,
Sorry I didn't get a chance to say goodbye in this physical life, but I can't wait to see you again in the next life.

Emma Christine Warren, I love you and miss you dearly!

-Travon

To My Beautiful Angel

As I grieve for you, it still feels unreal. As I revisit past memories, I become overwhelmed with sadness to think that those were the last times and there will never be another. At the same time, a smile comes across my face as I begin to be thankful that I was able to build a lot of memories when you were here. You will be missed a lot! From all of our memories we have made just to be able to call you my grandma. Not a day goes by without a thought of you coming across my mind. You will never be forgotten because of how much you mean to me. I was truly raised by the best and that is undeniable. Until we meet again, I just ask you to be our angel and watch over us. For that reason, I will not say goodbye but instead goodnight.
Goodnight, Granny.

-Lauren Reneé

Granny, you may not be here but I'll wear a piece of you on me for the rest of my life. Don't worry about Daddy. We'll take care of him. I love you and miss you.

Love, Ky Ky

Granny,

Always strong and never forgotten.

Love, Warren

We'll play games and I'll teach you about the new games when I see you again. I love you.

Love,

Fred Warren III

This has caught me off guard, but I want to thank you for unconditional love and respect, thank you for loving my children, thank you for the random calls checking on me when you hadn't seen me in a while, thank you for hope with a familiar spirit after my mom left this earth, thank you for potato salad with mustard when I couldn't get my mom's, thank you for my black eye peas, thank you for introducing me to Manwich and Hamburger Helper when I was a child, thank you for never turning me away when I knew you didn't want to be bothered, most of all thank you for being my big cousin till the end!
