Obituary

OCINE GLENN, SR., was born in Grady County on October 10, 1941, to the late Mitchell Glenn, Sr., and the late Ollie M. Anderson Glenn. His life down here was done on Sunday September 15, 2019.

Ocine confessed Christ and joined White Springs under the leadership of Rev W.L. Perry. In later years, he served under the leadership of Elder R. Baker, who ordained him as deacon. He moved his membership to Solid Rock, still under the leadership of Pastor Baker. In Ocine's later years, Rev. Cornell Henry became pastor. Ocine served faithful until he could no longer attend church.

He attended Grady County School. He was employed by W. B. Roddenberry before he would find work at Costal Lumber Company. He would later start working as a construction worker.

"Boot", as he was called by many, was a loving person. He loved his family very much. He loved fishing so much that he would share his catch of the day with family and friends. In 1967, he was married to Audrey M. Salter. To this union, six children were born. One preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife of 51 years, Audrey M. Glenn; three daughters, Theresa M. (Willie) Cairo, Cassandra D. Glenn, and Sheneke Glenn, both of Havana, FL; sons, Ocine Glenn, Jr., of Atlanta, GA, Antonio Glenn of Attapulcus, GA, and Malcolm Glenn of Tallahassee, FL; eighteen grandchildren; six great-grands; three brothers, Mitchell, Amos, and Willie Glenn, all of Cairo, GA; three sisters, Mary, Emma, and Barbara, all of Cairo, GA; five sisters-in-law, Sadie Glenn, Mercedes Glenn, Phyllis Glenn, all of Cairo, GA, Glenda McBride and Linda Blackmon, of Miami, FL; two brothers-in-law, Author McBride and James Blackmon, both of Miami, FL; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends. Ocine was preceded in death by his parents, Mitchell and Ollie Glenn; two brothers, Clinton and Ambers Glenn, Sr.; one daughter, Felicia Glenn; and grandson, Elijah Glenn.
