

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour with useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer,
And I, in turn, will comfort you
And hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

The Obituary

JHYNELL WILSON was born on October 14, 1950, to the late Wilson and Gladys “Pick” Cooper in Whigham, Georgia. Two siblings preceded her in death, James Earl Cooper and Wilson “Peter” Cooper, and she leaves two siblings, Emory Cooper of Tallahassee, Florida, and Dorothy (Dennis) Mcgriff of Cairo, Georgia.

She attended Washington Consolidated High School until she moved with her family to Long Island, New York, in 1966. She graduated from Hempstead High School in 1968, but was a dedicated member of Washington Consolidated High School, Class of 1968.

Jhynell became a partner in love and marriage with David Wilson on December 29, 1971. This union was blessed with seven children, Katiti (Don, Sr.) Mays of Hempstead, New York, Terrance Cooper of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Noni (Tony) Brown of Thomasville, Georgia, Londa Wilson of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Iesiah Wilson of Cairo, Georgia, Felisha (Bobby, Jr.) Cleveland of Whigham, Georgia, and Sheena (Donyel) Sparrow of Cairo, Georgia.

Jhynell Wilson was a faithful member of Beulah Missionary Baptist Church in Cairo, Georgia, where she served for many years in various auxiliaries (Senior Choir, Senior Usher Board, the Youth Department, and Pastor Appreciation Board). She served as a musician for New Hope Missionary Baptist Church and Piney Grove Missionary Baptist Church, both of Whigham, Georgia.

She faithfully served her community in the field of social services, working for the Cairo, Georgia, Department of Labor and the Southwest Georgia Community Action Council. In October 2015, she retired as the Director of the Grady County Neighborhood Service Center. The establishments of the Kids’ Activity Club (KAC) youth organization in 1985, and Jhynell’s Personal Assistant Service (JPAS) in 2017, were two of her greatest achievements.

She had many gifts and talents, such as sewing and song writing. She blessed many individuals and community organizations with her handmade quilts and throws. She wrote many songs, one of which was professionally recorded and performed by the Walden Family, “Jesus Was There”.

Jhynell leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband; children; grandchildren; great-grandchildren; uncles and aunts, Ernest (Sarah) Cooper of Miami, Florida, Stella Mann of Lumberton, North Carolina, Delois Govantes of Cairo, Georgia, and Sammy (Pam) Cooper of Cairo, Georgia; two devoted cousins, Mildred Hammonds of Whigham, Georgia, and Annette Spence of Cairo, Georgia; a devoted friend, Cynthia Higdon; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, godmother, Ruthie Lester, nephew, Ian Cooper, and eight first cousins.
