

The Broken Chain

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.*

I took His hand when I heard Him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;

Oh yes, these things I, too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;

Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch:

Perhaps my time seems all too brief;

Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and peace to thee;

God wanted me now—He has set me free.

Obituary

A page turned, a chapter completed, a life well lived, and a rest well earned. Mother Ora Baker departed this life on Saturday, April 18, 2020.

Mother Baker was born on September 15, 1929, in Cairo, Georgia, to the late Endie Wright and Willie Williams. On August 3, 1951, she was united in marriage to the late Lonzie Lee Baker. She confessed Christ at an early age and joined Shiloh #1 Missionary Baptist Church. Later, she joined Wilson Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, where she served faithfully on the Mother's Board and many other auxiliaries within the church, until she became ill. She received her education from the Grady County Public School System and was a devoted employee of the Joseph Campbell Soup Company for 38 years. Mother Baker was a member of the Dorothy Edwards Chapter OES #36 and the Household of Ruth #1105.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Ronnie (Jennifer) Baker, Sr.; grandchildren, Ronnie (Cristal) Baker, Jr., of Thomasville and Raven Baker of Augusta; great-grandchildren, VaShone Wilson, JhKari Baker, Jacquez Wilson, Ronnie Baker III, Ny'Asia Baker, and Alexandria Mack; step-grandchildren, Arthur Donalson, Shekoiya Jackson, and Shakura Harris; sister, Mable Baisden of Tampa, Florida; sister-in-law, Bernice Wright; a loving and devoted friend, Ora Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. A special thanks to the caretakers, Shekoiya Jackson, Michelle Ceasar, Tracey Bryant, and the entire staff of Health One Private In-Home Care.

In addition to her parents and husband; her sisters, Channie Nellon and Essie Mae Jones; and brothers, Willie B. Hadley, Charlie Wright, and Roosevelt Wright, preceded her in death.
