Reverend Cornell Henry, Officiating

Obituary

Archie M. Salter Glenn was born in Blakely, Georgia, on March 22, 1947, to the late Claude Salter, Sr., and the late Freddie Mae Barber. She was called home on May 14, 2020. She attended the school system in Early County.

Archie confessed Christ at an early age and joined White Spring Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend W.L. Perry. In her later years, she moved her membership to Solid Rock Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Elder R. Baker and later, under Reverend Cornell Henry. She served at the church as long as her body allowed her to.

In 1967, she married the love of her life, Ocine Glenn, Sr., and to this union, six children were birthed. “Auntie Momma Murl” or just “Murl” was a housewife and a loving mother. She was both loved and respected by those she encountered.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five children, including three daughters, Theresa (Willie) Glenn of Cairo, Georgia, Cassandra Glenn of McCraeville, Georgia, and Sheneke Glenn of Havana, Florida, and two sons, Ocine Glenn, Jr., of Atlanta, Georgia, and Antonio Glenn of McCraeville, Georgia; eighteen grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Glenda (Arthur) McBride and Linda (James) Blackmon of Miami, Florida; brothers-in-law, Mitchell (Sadie), Amos, and Willie (Phyllis) Glenn, all of Cairo, Georgia; sisters-in-law, Mary Kelly, Emma Glenn, and Barbara Corker, all of Cairo, Georgia; special friend, Annie Ruth Wilson of Attapulgus, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Archie was preceded in death by her husband, Ocine Glenn, Sr.; her daughter, Felicia Glenn; grandson, Elijah Glenn; her parents; one brother, Claude Jr. “Jack”; and two sisters, Barbara and Doris.
