

Reception Following Service

*"I am not mourning
because she's in the morning
where the light of the sun shines
on his face forever."*

William Jay McLaughlin (son)

Expressions of Gratitude

The McLaughlin Family would like to acknowledge and extend a special thank you to Walls Chapel United Methodist Church and to many dear friends for the generosity and support provided. The prayers, kindness, and benevolence shown during passing of our beloved Julia have been comforting during this difficult time.

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD
for ever.

— Psalm 23 —

The Obituary

Julia Augusta McLaughlin was born July 27, 1938, in Bowmore, NC, where her maternal grandparents raised her and taught her to serve the Lord.

She graduated from Upchurch High School in 1956. At age 19, Julia moved to the McLaughlin Family compound located at 161 Bergen Street in Brooklyn, New York. She was a devout Christian with unwavering faith, and while residing in Brooklyn, she was a member of the Greater Bibleway Temple.

Julia worked at Holy Family Hospital and in the Medical Records Department at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York until retirement.

In 2002, Julia moved to Scottsdale, Arizona, to help take care of her only granddaughter, and worked a short time at LaPetite Academy. In 2003, she joined the City of Grace Church, where she remained a steadfast member until her passing. Julia, a humanitarian, regularly volunteered in the administrative office at the church and the Children’s Ministry. Julia’s gentle spirit, radiant smile, and reverence for the Lord would illuminate a room. She was a loving mother, “Nana”, kind-hearted mother-in-law, cherished friend, welcoming neighbor, confidante, and surrogate grandmother to many children.

Julia is preceded in death by Sim Tip and Stella McLaughlin (grandparents), Lucille McLaughlin McIntyre (mother), and Robert Adams (brother).

Survivors include her only child, William JayMcLaughlin (Jill) of Scottsdale, Arizona, Maya McLaughlin (granddaughter) of Washington, D.C., Walter Adams (brother) of Hawaii, Shelley McCoy-Emory & Crystal McLaughlin (God daughters); uncles: Sim (June) McLaughlin Jr. (Brooklyn, NY), William Henry McLaughlin (wife: Dorothy) and Johnnie McLaughlin (Deceased wife: Dorothy Jane) (Raeford, NC); aunts: Margaret Ozella White and Thelma McLaughlin (Brooklyn, NY) and a host of other relatives and friends in Arizona, North Carolina, and New York.
