

FOREVER LOVED...

A piece of our heart lives in Heaven

Missing My Wife ♥

When I try to take a break and relax in my busy life, my heart, it does ache and all I think is how I miss my wife.
It hurt me so bad, all this pain inside, thinking of the love we had and tears I have cried. I think of the places that we went to, how I love you with all my heart and all the things we didn't get to do, but most of all how we have been torn apart.
I miss you so and love you still.
I did not want to let you go, but I tell myself it was God's will.
Everyday I see things you've done, it is lonely without you here,
I try to be strong for our family, but all I can do is reminiscence.

Camisha's Life...

CAMISHA NACOLE "STAR" MCGEE (44) departed this earthly life on Saturday May 7, 2022 at First Health Hospice and Palliative Care in West End, NC. She was born December 19, 1977 in Moore County to Betty McNeill and Jerry L. Jackson.

She graduated from Hoke County High School in 1996. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Early Childhood Education from the University of Mount Olive in 2019. She was employed by Hoke County School system until 2020. She was very passionate about her students, family, and helping others. She was very friendly and generous to everyone she came into contact with. She was a loving wife, and mother that loved to joke and laugh to bring a smile to her family and friends.

She met and married Marquell McGee and together they created a blended family with Joequan, Za'Kyrrah, and the dog that she grew to love named Angel. She enjoyed traveling and creating fun memories with her loved ones. She gave her life to Christ and became a very faithful member of the Helpers Hands Ministry Church. She really enjoyed reading and talking about the Bible, in which she knew well, and often would give advice to use for their own lives. She loved to shop for herself and her family.

She leaves to cherish her memories her parents Betty McNeill, Jerry L. Jackson and step-mother, Falana Jackson; daughter, Precious J. Monroe and step-daughter, Za'Kyrrah McGee; son Joequan Gilchrist; brothers, Zachary Jackson, Josiah Jackson, Carmichael L. Monroe and Jefferson C. Virgil; sisters, Norlisha L. Monroe, Torondo S. Monroe, Kimberly C. Reynolds, Shatifa Jackson and Shaliyah Jackson, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives, good friends, her dearly beloved church family. Camisha will be deeply missed by many in which we take comfort in knowing that she is resting in the arms of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,

Don't remember me with tears,

Remember all the laughter,

We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented

That my life it was worthwhile,

Knowing that I passed along the way

I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street

And you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footsteps

Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy

Just because I'm out of sight,

Remember that I'm with you

each morning, noon and night.
