

Grandma

Grandma why did you have to go? My heart is broken. I don't know how to feel because we were so close, and I loved you so...

You were my best friend. Never ever had any bond with anyone as tight as the one I had with you...

From the last day we talked, I didn't think that our laughs and time together would be through.

Our last words to each other that day was "I love you!" And I'll always know and cherish that day...

God has called you home and here you couldn't stay, makes me feel good till you are with mom again I'll miss you every day.

G-ma until we meet again, I'll just say "I love you forever and always and thank you for being a friend!"

Grandma's Letter

One quiet day the angels came and took grandma far away, but in the stillness of the night I could almost hear her say.

Dear Tasia, I will miss you. You mean so much to me, but Jesus called me to his side.

My daughter was ready for me to come home to be with her. I'm in heaven, I will be alright. A place of God great beauty no team earthly carriers only peace and joy forever and love beyond compare.

So, remember all the good times, don't think about the sad, treasure all the special moments through the years we've always had, and if you trust in Jesus, I can promise this and more, you will get a hug grandma someday on heaven's golden shore.

I love you.
