A Proud Woman

It matters not from whence she comes,
Or where she wishes to go.
If a woman had pride within herself,
Those around her will know.
A PROUD WOMAN
May not have the best in life,
But what she has is her own.
She dresses well when in the public,
And looks just as good at home.
A PROUD WOMAN
Is always busy doing something,
She doesn't have an idle mind.

And she has the strength to move mountains,
Yet is so gentle and so kind.
A PROUD WOMAN takes care of her home,
It shows all around her domain.
She makes you feel so welcome,
You don't mind returning again.
A PROUD WOMAN will smile when she feels like crying,
And her family always comes first.
She will give them her last drink of water,
Even though she thirst.
A proud woman will stand by her mate,
Through life's sunshine and rain.
Because she knows trouble won't last always,
And her love will sustain.

A PROUD WOMAN has God in her life,
And she believes in the power of prayer.
She knows no matter what the hour,
God is always there.
A PROUD WOMAN
Believes there is life after death,
And that she will be reborn.
Now she knows
What David meant when he said,
"Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy cometh in the morning."

THE OBITUARY

Mother Betty L. Delaney, daughter of the late Harvey and Hannah McDuffie, was born on April 4, 1942 in Raeford, NC. God called her from her earthly home to her Heavenly Reward on January 19, 2017 at First Health Moore Regional Hospital.

Mother Delaney was educated in the Hoke County School System and graduated from Upchurch High School. She was employed at Monte Fiore Hospital in New York.

She was married to the late Charles "Buck" Delaney, who preceded her in death. To this union, they had two sons, Charles and Dennis.

Mother Delaney was a faithful member of St. James United Church of God, where she served on the Mother's Board, Missionary Department, Adult Sunday School Teacher, Usher's Board, the Women's Ministry and the Loving Sister's Choir.

She was preceded in death by three sisters, Margaret, Ginger Bell and Bessie; five brothers, Hosies, Howard, Albert, Cleo and Robert.

Mother Delaney leaves to forever cherish precious memories: two sons, Charles J. (Rodeline) Delaney of Atlanta, GA and Dennis (Lagranda) Delaney of Fredericksburg, VA; one sister, Doretha Rice of Stamford, Conn.; two brothers, Harvey McDuffie of Raeford, NC and Leroy (Betty) McDuffie of Raeford, NC; ten grandchildren, Jonathan, Siovhan, Justin, Abbi-gail, Diavian, Bria, Markel, D'onna and Keenan; one great grand, Armair; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
