Thanks Dad,
For teaching us to be strong,
Thanks Dad,
For showing us what's right from wrong.
Thanks Dad, for giving us enough love and shelter.
Thanks Dad,
For sharing with us our tears and laughter.
Thanks Dad, for teaching us to stand on our own.
Thanks Dad,
For all the love and care you have shown.
Thanks Dad, for giving us support and inspirations.
Thanks Dad,
For guiding us in our debating and decisions.
Thanks Dad, for being responsible, kind and hardworking.
Thanks Dad,
For lending us your time when we're concentrating.
Thanks Dad, for loving from your heart.
And thanks Dad,
For hoping you'll be with us in heaven and not apart.
Thanks Dad, for showing us how a real dad should be.
For you always cared for mum and us.
What more can we ask from a great father like you.
For special fathers like you are uncommon
And reduced to a few.
Thanks Dad,
For showing us unconditional caring and love.
For we hope you can read and hear this from above.

THE OBITUARY

Guy Shuffort Morris III answered his Father and went into eternity on Wednesday, March 22, 2017. He was born on May 16, 1971 at Womack Army Hospital in Fort Bragg, NC to his parents, Mr. Guy Shuffort Morris II and the late Mrs. Louise Morris.

Guy was educated in the Hoke County Public School System. He became great at football, track and field. He also met his wife in high school and they celebrated 26 years of marriage and a total of 30 years together! (Can we stop and clap just for that alone!!!) After graduating from Hoke County High School in 1989, Guy joined the United States Navy and served our country through two wars.

Many know him for the love of his favorite team the “New York Giants”. The colors that surround him represent how much he loved his team.

Guy also accepted his call into ministry at a very young age and began his journey through life preaching the gospel and sharing the love of God literally where ever he went. He didn’t care where he was and many are here today because of his ministry. He was a determined Great and Awesome Chef, better known as “Chef Morris”, and that great cooking will be missed by all.

Saving the best for last, Guy loved his wife, children and precious heart throb, his granddaughter to the very core. He was dedicated and determined to always support his family in everything. The Morris Five will forever be because of his protection over the family.

Guy was preceded in death by his mom, Mrs. Louise Morris.

Guy will always be loved and remembered by his wife, Lynette; children, Lorell, Guy IV, Latrice and his granddaughter, Malana; father, Guy Shuffort Morris II; brothers, Walter, Freddy (Regina); sisters, Alice, Janet (David) and Alicia (Gary); a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
