God saw him getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
He wrapped him in his loving arms
and whispered 'Come with me.'

He suffered much in silence,
his spirit did not bend.
He faced his pain with courage,
until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us
but his fight was not in vain,
God took him to His loving home
and freed him from the pain.

For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand, I fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing. ~ 2 Timothy 4: 6-8
