THE OBITUARY

Dorothy L. Smith, daughter of the late Dan Leonard and Estel Baldwin, was born on July 30, 1934. She departed her life on Monday, November 20, 2017 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville, NC.

Dorothy accepted Christ as her personal Savior many years ago. She was a faithful member of First Missionary Baptist Church in Parkton, NC until her health started to decline. She was a member of the Church Floral Club.

She retired from National Linen Services where she was a devoted and loyal employee.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Donnie Way Smith, who preceded her in death. To this union, they were blessed with two daughters.

Fond memories will always live in the hearts of her two daughters, Thelma Marion (Wilson) of Raeford, NC and Charlene Smith Harris (Joe) of Lumber Bridge, NC; and one adopted son, David Baldwin of Raeford, NC; two very special love ones, Pamela Love (Wayne) of Lumber Bridge, NC and Johnny McGougan of Lumber Bridge, NC.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memories: one brother, Daniel Baldwin (Sam) of Fayetteville, NC; two brothers and two sisters that preceded her in death, Edward Lee and James Baldwin and Ethel Mae Baldwin and Louise Melvin; two sisters-in-law, Mary Frances Graham of Fayetteville, NC and Carrie Bellk Scriven of Raeford, NC; one brother-in-law, Frank Smith, Jr. of Parkton, NC; eight grandchildren, Chavala Damron (Ray) of Detroit, MI, Ja'kelia Brown and Shakur Brown of the home, Desvonn Baldwin, Davius Baldwin, Daja Sanders, Layla Bordeaux and Geneva Baldwin; two great grandchildren, Christian Warren and Knowledge Damron of Detroit, MI; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"You're Gone"

Our hearts still ache

with sadness,

And secret tears

still flow,

What it means to lose you,

No one will never know...
