Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan.
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to a place aglow,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.*

THE OBITUARY

Ms. Dorothy Jean Adams Lamb was born on August 1, 1957 to the late James and Lula Adams. She departed this life on Sunday, January 7, 2018 at Morrison Manor in Laurinburg, NC.

Jean was a feisty little woman with a great big heart. She attended Hoke County Schools and was a Hoke County High School Graduate with her beloved Class of 1975. She later attended FTCC and Fayetteville Beauty College and received a degree in cosmetology. Jean worked many jobs, but loved her job at First Health of the Carolinas, where she worked until her health declined.

Jean always had a smile, and was there to land a hand.

She leaves to cherish her many memories: her daughter, Nasheka Adams; one grandson, Jalyn Dural; one granddaughter, Jada Deshan; two sisters, Gwendolyn (Eddie) Robinson of Raeford, NC and Sheila (Elander) Dixon of Red Springs, NC; three brothers, Chavis (Thelma) Adams, Jerry (Tracy) Adams and Roger (Annette) Adams all of Raeford, NC; one brother, James, Jr. preceded her in death; two uncles, James Southerland and Harrison (Gwendolyn) Southerland of Raeford, NC; six aunts, Elvenia Southerland, Yvonne Bethea, Albertha Adams, Connie Southerland and Martha Southerland all of Raeford, NC and Dorothy McLaurin of Manhattan, NY; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
