Gone Away

*An Angel whispered,
Take my hand and come with me,
Your work here is done.
I went to a place,
Where there's no tears, nor sorrow,
Only laughter and smiles.
There will always be a tomorrow.
As I move amongst the clouds,
I'll look down and smile upon you,
While the Angels sing a heavenly song.
I am not alone,
All who went before are here,
They awaited my return.
I know you'll grieve and wish I was still here,
I am in here in memories,
You hold dear.
Remember how much I love you,
And know I took your love with me.
I did not wish for you to cry,
Nor feel sad.
My pain is gone and I am free!
Soon you'll come to me.
Until then, God be with you,
Just as He's with me.*

THE OBITUARY

Death is at once. The end of the body's old journey and the beginning of the soul's new journey.

Mr. Johnny Earl Bease was born on September 27, 1943 to the late Annie Louvenia Greggs and Johnny Bease in Conway, SC. He entered into eternal sleep on Sunday, March 25, 2018 at 2:30 a.m. in Autumn Care Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Fayetteville, NC following a period of declining health.

He occasionally visited Silver Grove Immanuel Missionary Baptist Church where his family members hold membership.

He grew up and attended school in South Carolina until relocating with family to Raeford, NC. He was employed by Carolina Turf at a young age. After leaving for a short time to be employed by the House of Raeford, he returned back to Carolina Turf until he retired.

Johnny was united to Molly Jane Moore who preceded him in death.

Johnny was of a quite spirit, a humble and loving person. There will be a void...he will be greatly missed.

He is preceded in death by four siblings, JoAnn McRae, Charles Alston, Sarah Minor and Lawrence Bease; a brother-in-law, Lawrence McRae; a sister-in-law, Louise Alston; two aunts, Georgia Beatty and Emma Morgan and uncle, William Greggs.

He leaves to cherish memories: his daughter, Deborah L. McNeill Weatherspoon of Fayetteville, NC; a step-son, Bruce Moore of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; two granddaughters, Rasháe Reid (Marquise), Aneisha Weatherspoon; three great grandchildren, Shamont, Jr., Aaliya and Marquise, Jr. of Fayetteville, NC; sister, Cynthia L. Hill (David) of Newport News, VA; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
