My Mom

I will always need my mom,

Regardless of my age.

She's made me laugh,

Made me cry,

Her love will never fade.

She's watched me win,

She's seen me lose.

There's not a thing

She wouldn't do.

She cheers me up

And keep me grounded,

If I lose my way.

At times she drives me crazy,

But my mom she'll always be.

And even when I'm far away,

I think, what would my mother say...

Yes, even still today!

Your memories will never fade.

THE OBITUARY

Ometric Debra Snow was born on January 23, 1983 to the late Grace Ann McPhaul Ray in Fayetteville, NC. Ometric departed this life on April 23, 2018.

She attended Hoke County Schools, before transferring to New Jersey School System. Former VP of "The Unit", Ometric was known for her big heart, giving spirit, her love for her family and just like her big sister love for movies.

Ometric was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Grace McPhaul Ray; her sister, Shenita Lashonda McPhaul; her grandfather, James Williams and her grandmother, Oralee McPhaul.

Ometric leaves to cherish her memories: her father, Paul Snow of Maryland; two daughters, Ziyanna Snow and Neorah Snow; one son, Tresean Snow, all of the home. To help cherish those memories: three sisters, Stacie Ray of East Point, GA, Shakeya Gibson (Kevin) of Bossler City, LA and Lia McNeill (Demarious) of Lumber Bridge, NC; four brothers, Paul S. Robinson of St. Pauls, NC, Joshua Snow (Stephanie) of Garner, NC, Anthony Stewart of Garner, NC and Dominic Snow (Iesha); four aunts, Bessie, Eva, Trina and Reba all of Raeford, NC; two uncles, Michael McRae and James Jr. of Raeford, NC; one great aunt; one great uncle; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; a special niece who was like a daughter and sister, Kiara also of the home.
