THE OBITUARY

“But they that upon the Lord shall renew their strength. They shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.” ~ Isaiah 40: 31

Mary Mildred Little Lewis, the daughter of the late Quincey A. Little, Sr. and Anno Jane Beatty Little, was born on March 11, 1950 in Raeford, NC of Hoke County. She transitioned into life eternal in August 8, 2018 at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, NC.

“Mur”, as she was affectionately called, was the third oldest of seven children. She received Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and served Him faithfully until her transition. She loved studying and teaching the Word of God. She did not just know the Word, but she lived it in her every day life. She was known by many as the walking Epistle.

Mary received her education in the Upchurch Elementary Schools and Hoke County High School. She later attended Flight Attendant School in Pompano Beach, FL. She grew up in the Freedom Chapel AME Zion Church, where she was a faithful disciple and member of the Junior and Gospel Choirs. She was a faithful member of the church until she was inspired to move her membership to Mount Carmel Holiness Church. Again, she served faithfully as a disciple of the church.

She was employed by House of Raeford for five years and Burlington Industries for twelve years. She worked faithfully on each of those jobs because she loved what she did.

In 1990, she married Cecil Lewis of Bladenboro, NC. To this union, one son, Cecil

Mario Lewis, was born. She was a greath mother and devoted wife. In 1995, she moved back to Raeford, NC and became a disciple of the Full Gospel Temple, Voice of Freedom Ministries, Inc. under the leadership and guidance of Rev. James L. Glenn. She served faithfully in Sunday School and other church services until she could go no more.

Mary (Mur) leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Mario, whom she loved dearly; four sisters, Evangelist Annie Little of the home, Dorothy L. Ellerbee (Lary) of Fayetteville, NC, Teressa L. Rice (Richard) of Troy, Ill., Naomi Little of Durham, NC; one brother, Quincey A. Little, Jr. of the home; two aunts, Naomi McKinnon and Martha Beatty; two step-sons, Travis and Cedric Lewis of Bladenboro, NC; two adopted sisters, Ms. Verlana Green of raeford, NC and Edna Baskerville (Bernard); one God-sister, Elder Dorine McMillan (Gary); a host of nieces, nephews, as well as a host of ther relatives and friends.
