ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family would like to take this opportunity to express our sincerest appreciation for the thoughtfulness presented to us and the love we have been shown during our time of bereavement.

May God bless you.

The Best Nanny

Our dear Nanny said her farewell.

She gave all her wisdom and love

Before her last breath.

Nanny's infectious smile will forever be in our hearts.

Her love will carry on through every one of us.

We all have our own wonderful memories of Nanny.

With shared ups and downs with each other.

Overall, we knew she loved us dearly.

Nanny's strong presence was felt everywhere she went.

And we will truly miss you.

All of her grands, great-grands and great-great-grands

Will continue to carry her in our hearts.

Nanny We Love You!

LIFE REFLECTION

On Monday, December 10, 2018, Carrie Mae Robinson laid down her earthly body for her heavenly home and entered into eternity with the Lord. Carrie was born on April 15, 1929 to the late Jessie and Mary McNair in Robeson County, North Carolina. Carrie was married to the late Joseph Franklin Robinson.

In 1948, Carrie graduated from Bladen Central High School in Elizabethtown, NC. She attended North Central College in Durham, NC. In the mid 50's, she relocated to Washington, DC. There she served in an administrative position for the Navy Department Bureau of Naval Personnel.

Carrie gave her life to Christ at an early age. In 1971, she became an active faithful and dedicated member of Franklin P. Nash United Methodist Church where she remained until her health declined. She served on the Usher Board, Council on Ministries Secretary, Member of Administrative Council, Captain of Birthday Club, Bible School Teacher and was chairperson of various programs. She loved praising God, praying, reading the word of God, also singing. Carrie helped bring God's kingdom to this earth as it is in heaven especially with her unconditional love and beautiful smile which she gave to those she met.

Carrie was a classy dresser, funny, straightforward and charming. She was a devoted mother, sister, grandmother, and great grandmother affectionately known as "Nanny" by her great grands. She loved helping other. You could always count on her for words of wisdom and encouragement. Her hobbies were event planning and crafts.

Carrie was preceded in death by one sister, Edithus McNeill and two brothers, Samuel McNair and David McNair; one grandson, Ricky Bratcher.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: one son, Steve McNair of Raeford, NC; four daughters, Joyce Baker and Peggy McGregor both of Raeford, NC, Ava Ray of Fayetteville, NC and Brenda Miles (Willie) of District Height, MD; thirteen grandchildren; sixty-eight great grandchildren, forty-four great-great grandchildren; one great-great-great grandchild; two brothers, Jessie McNair (Verdell) and Eddie McNair (Rovenia) both of Raeford, NC; three sisters, Cletis McNatt of Washington, DC, Mary Satterfield of Washington, DC and Elva Stewart of Upper Marlboro, MD; one sister-in-law, Dorothy Johnson of Cleveland, OH; two God sons, Kelvin Campbell and Blakley Sanford; one God daughter, Jasmine Crawford; a devoted friend, Mary Harris and play sister, Sarah Young; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Mother's Hand

We held her hand and they were very thin and worn,
But they held as tightly.
As the day we were born those tender loving hands,
Etched by work and care have faded by your bedside,
Many times in faithful prayer they washed us,
And fed us and helped us grow up strong,
They worked hard to raise us and teach us right from wrong.
We held your hands again today,
And oh they felt so grand,
There's a little of our Lord in our mother's hand.

Love Always
Joyce, Steve, Ava, Peggy and Brenda

*As the sun sets upon this life,
And your body is laid to rest,
We know you'll be up in Heaven,
Because God only takes the best.
We know you're watching over us,
And it takes away the pain.
We will carry you in our hearts,
Until we meet again.
Our world is a little darker
Now that we're apart,
But the memories are shining brightly
Within our broken hearts.
You touched the lives of those you loved,
And we wanted you to stay,
But you were needed up in Heaven,
And God whispered "come this way".
We know whenever we're lonely,
And our smiles become a frown,
We'll look up to the sky above,
And they'll be an Angel looking down.*

Forever in Our Hearts
Love Your Great Grandchildren
