“For Dad”

*To be heard, without saying a word
To be bugged, when I'm feeling blue,
To be understood, when I'm confused,
So rare was a dad like you,
Your loving smile, your gentle laugh,
Made all the difference in my day,
Your endless wisdom and timeless advice,
Always helped me find my way,
In you there was no equal,
You were in a class all in your own,
And because of all the love you gave me,
I'll never be alone,
It's a honor to have known you,
To share stories and dreams,
I'll always think of you smiling,
No matter how tough life seems,
You're still special beyond compare,
Your heart so kind and true,
I wish that everyone on Earth,
Could have a dad like you.*

THE OBITUARY

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith” ~ II Timothy 4:7

Adron Aldophus Yeomans, known affectionately to family and friends as “Big Ace” was born on February 18, 1960 to John Yeomans and the late Annie Mae Brewington Yeomans in Fayetteville North Carolina. He was peacefully called to rest in the early morning of Monday February 18, 2019.

He was a native of Fayetteville, North Carolina and was educated in the Cumberland County Public Schools System. Being the oldest of 10 siblings, he had a nurturing heart. He was always kind, funny and full of compliments. He was known for his charming personality, never meeting a stranger.

He was preceded in death by his son, Adron Yeomans.

He leaves to forever cherish his memory and love: his father: John Yeomans Jr. of Hope Mills, NC; five daughters: Lakeisha Smith, Indya (Willie) Freeman, Shayla Jones, Sierra Yeomans and Roeisha Cooper; one son: Willie (Nancy) McMillian all of Fayetteville, NC; 4 sisters: Regina Yeomans, LaTanya Douglas and Chianna Yeomans all of Fayetteville, NC, Tracey (Lester) Goins of San Antonio, TX; 5 brothers: John Yeomans III, Bruce (Jeanine) Yeomans, Barrian Yeomans, and Reginald Yeomans all of Fayetteville, NC; James Thomas of Mesquite, TX; 11 grandchildren; 2 aunts and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He was a loving father, brother and friend, he will be greatly missed by all.
