PALL BEARERS
Family and Friends

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We would like to take a moment to express our deepest gratitude to the many relatives and friends for their abundant acts of love, sympathy and friendship shared with us during our bereavement. Our hearts have been made glad and spirits lifted because of the genuine acts of kindness that each of you exemplified during this difficult time.

THE FAMILY

God saw him getting tired, and a cure was not to be.
He wrapped him in his loving arms
and whispered 'Come with me.'

He suffered much in silence,
his spirit did not bend.
He faced his pain with courage,
until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us
but his fight was not in vain,
God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

Sometimes its hard to understand,

Why certain things must be.

*But there is a reason
for it all,*

*Beyond our power
to see.*

A precious one from us is gone,

A voice we love is still,

A place is vacant in our hearts,

That never can be filled.

It's was God who came to set him free.

Just the other day He called his name,

And very soon the Angel came.

We will always love and miss you,

Keep shinning until we meet again.

THE OBITUARY

Monroe Burke, Jr. was born in Raeford, NC on May 18, 1950 to the union of the late Monroe and Leuvenia Burke, who preceded him in death. He was also preceded in death by brothers, Donnell F. Burke and Gregory L. Burke. He departed on February 24, 2019 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville, NC.

Monroe graduated from Upchurch High School in 1967 and Fayetteville State University in 1971.

Monroe worked at Fayetteville State University from 1971 - 2004. He was a mentor, advisor, coach, tutor and counselor. He assisted many students financially and moral supports. He was a devoted member of New Genesis First Start Ministries in Fayetteville, NC. Caroling recently named chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Monroe (RODAN) leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Annie F. Burke; three special adopted sons, Marcus Davis of Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, Thurman Newton of Raleigh, NC and Michael Bronson of the home; special brother, Andrew Johnson (Reeshemah); two grandsons; two aunts, Ruby Brown (William) of New Haven, CT and Willie C. McGregor of New Haven, CT; five uncles, Edison McGregor of Wilson, NC, Matthew McGregor (Algie), Jerry McGregor (Debra), David McGregor (Hannah) of Raeford, NC and Dennis McGregor (Sherrie) of Fayetteville, NC; one brother-in-law, Henry W. Fryar (Kay) of Kenly, NC; four sisters-in-law, Cornelius P. Caldwell (Willie) of Durham, NC, Gladys Fryar of Clinton, NC, Pandora Fryar of Greensboro, NC and Barbara Fryar of Buffalo, NY. Monroe was loved by a host of friends, other relatives, nieces, nephews, business associates, former students and his crews (The Boys).
