ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We would like to take a moment to express our deepest gratitude to the many relatives and friends for their abundant acts of love, sympathy and friendship shared with us during our bereavement. Our hearts have been made glad and spirits lifted because of the genuine acts of kindness that each of you exemplified during this difficult time.

Special thanks to the First Health Hospice, Dennis Walker and Robert McLean.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

THE OBITUARY

God Is Good All The Time

Jason Thomas Harrington, son of the late Will and Frances Harrington, was born February 9, 1931 in Hoke County. He attended Hoke County Schools and was a great leader as a young man.

At an early age, Jason joined Freedom Chapel AME Zion Church and confessed Jesus Christ as his Savior. He love the Lord and could pray. He served as a teacher, Junior Sunday School Superintendent.

At the age of 18 Jason, hitched a ride to Washington, DC on an Ice Cream Truck. He worked as a paper boy, shoe shine boy and late got a job as a dish washer at a hospital in Washington. He became the head cook in that hospital for over 37 years.

While in Washington DC he served as a faithful member of the Second Baptist Church and served as a Deacon for 22 years. After retiring he moved back to Raeford, NC.

Mr. Harrington leaves to cherish his son, Kenneth Southerland; daughters, Kimberly, Chee Chee and Cynthia; a special niece, Rev. Frances Walker and nephew, Dennis Walker and a host of other relatives and friends.
