THE OBITUARY

With the family having mixed emotions and understandably broken hearts, Buie Funeral Home has been given the solemn duty to advise all that Mr. George Beatty has transitioned from his life here into his eternal rest in paradise. George put down the care of this life on Friday, October 11, 2019 in Pinehurst, NC. His memories have forever been etched in time for family and friends, near and far, to cherish.

No one ever wants to say goodbye to a loved one, however, the peace that surpasses all understanding has embraced his loving wife, children, siblings and all other family and friends. This peace shall sustain them for as they realized God will hold them in the hollow of his compassion hands.

George Beatty was born on April 14, 1947 to the late Ozel and Daisey Beatty

George was a member of God Deliverance Church in Raeford, NC. He loved to sing (sung with Big Red Spiritual) and his favorite songs were “Wings Like A Dove” and “Wave My hands”.

He loved his suits, hats and shoes. He was a business owner of Beatty Home Improvement. Cruising, fishing and family was his love.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three siblings, Ozella, Beatrice and Calvin; two sons, Shonta and Robin.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories: his wife, Mildred M. Beatty; ten children, Tony D. Dexter, Trina, George, Jr., Daphne (Omar), Jeremy (Michele), Shawn (Matresser), Russell, Antwain (Cynthia) and Maurice; siblings, Rufus (Joe), Odell (Janie) Big Red, Janie Smith and Estella Edwards; thirty grandchildren; four great grands; his spiritual mother, Barbara Flowers; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
