Family and Friends

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of the late Beverly McGougan and Odell McGougan appreciates all acts of kindness, calls and visits that you have so gratefully shown during the passing of our loved one. We so humbly love and thank you from the very depths of our hearts.

God bless you and keep each of you as you travel the roads of life.

I can't say I'll be alright, but I'll just focus on all the good memories. I love you with all I am and will continue to make you smile. Sleep mama... You don't have to suffer any more and know that your son won't ever forget you. I love you endlessly.

Your Son ~ "Mikie"

Sister, oh Sister, why did you have to go so soon? You and daddy left me to take care of the children. I promise to do my best. Sister, you will truly be missed by me. No one will take your place. I love you sister, but you're in a better place now and I will let you take your rest knowing the peace you have now. See y'all on the other side.

Your Baby Sister ~ Shupoo

THE OBITUARY

Mrs. Beverly Gail McGougan Harris, "Girlie", was born on July 15, 1967 to the late Odell and Augusta McGougan.

She graduated from Hoke County High School in 1985 and attended Chowan College for a period of time. Beverly worked at several textile plants, Burlington Industries, Spanco, West Point Stevens and also House of Raeford.

She was married for 30 years to the love of her life, her wonderful and supported husband, Marvin "Coco" Harris, who stood by her side until the very end. Beverly called him "her king".

She departed this life on Tuesday, October 22, 2019 at home.

Bell was preceded in death by her daughter, Ayesha Sharon Harris; her parents, Odell and Augusta McGougan; a brother, Ledell McGougan and her mother-in-law, Annie Harris.

She leave to cherish many memories: her husband, Marvin "Coco" Harris of the home; her son Demychael Harris of Salisbury, NC; daughter, Raushae Harris of Fayetteville, NC; three grandchildren, A'Khai, Ashiya and Amir who loved her to pieces; her brothers, Antonio McGougan (Toni) of Clarksville, TN and Ellis Love (Pam); her sister, Cassandra McGougan (David); her uncles, Frankie Baldwin (Marlene), Alex Baldwin and Hosea Baldwin (Mary); two brothers-in-law, Tony Harris and Michael Harris; her aunts, Nettie McGougan, Sarah McGougan and Mary Baldwin (Hosea) all of Lumber Bridges, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Bell was the life of any party she attended. She loved to laugh and have a good time. No doubt, she'll be truly missed.

THE OBITUARY

Mr. Odell "Mope" McGougan was born on April 11, 1937 to the late Booker T. and Nettie Jane McGougan

At an early age, he attended Laurel Hill School. For many years, Odell worked for Faberge in Raeford, NC and also where he retired and later moved to the Hoke County School System. He loved to fish at the beach, creek and pond, wherever he could put a pole in. He joined Laurel Hill Missionary Baptist Church at an early age.

On Tuesday morning, October 24, 2019 at 4:31 AM, God called home our loved one. He was a loving father, brother, uncle, grandfather and friend to many. "Mope" as some called him will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Augusta; son, Ledell McGougan and daughter, Beverly Harris; two brothers, Eddie Lee and Pete McGougan.

Always in memory, he leaves to cherish: his sons, Antonio (Toni) McGougan of Clarksville, TN and Ellis Love (Pam) of Lumber Bridges, NC; son-in-law, Marvin "Coco" Harris of McCain, NC; one daughter, Cassandra McGougan (David) of the home; his brothers, Willie Lee McGougan of Lumber Bridges, NC and Douglas McGougan of Raeford, NC; sisters, Nettie Mae McGougan, Sarah McGougan and Mary Baldwin (Hosea) all of Lumber Bridges, NC; aunt, Rosie McGougan of Hope Mills, NC; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-one great grandchildren, of those fifteen grands, two grandsons he raised as his own, Anthony and Antwon McLaughlin, one he called son, Curtis Torrence; special friends, Bobby Richardson and Walter Purdie and many more, but too many to name; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

There are not enough words to explain how grateful we are to his sister "Mae Mae" for her being at his every bacon calls. She faithfully took care of her brother in every possible was. Love you more than words can say!

Daddy, Oh Daddy, you will always be my “Big Giant”, that’s why you were called on by me so many times...You left me to take care of the children. Those were your last words to me.

I will do my best. My heart is shattered in a thousand pieces. I knew you were tired, so rest on daddy.

The way I showed my love was sometimes strange, but it was just being strong for you. I love you my “Big Giant”, and you will be missed by me.

Rest Dad and I will see y’all on the other side.

Love,
Your Baby Shupoo
