“Momma”

My Momma, you finished and won the battle, no more tears, struggles, pain, heartache, or suffering. You faced the rivalries and won. Now you can rest in peace. God has you in a place that He has prepared for you where no one can harm you anymore. Those who caused you to shed so many tears will surely be handling by the almighty everlasting God. A God who sees and knows everything. “Vengeance is mind says the Lord.” Romans 12: 19

Momma, I am who I am today because of the many lesson you taught me: “Let God be God”, “Put your trust in God”, give “God the Praises” no matter what things look like, never be ashamed to praise God. I am thankful for you momma. I will always cherish the memories and many prayers we prayed together in the last days...Rest in peace. Momma, you will truly be missed.

I Love You ~ Gena

November 8, 2019

I thought of you with love today, but that’s nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and the day before that too.

I think of you in silence and often speak your name. All I have are memories and picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake with which I will never part. God has you in His keeping. I have you in my heart.

*Love Always,
Granddaughter ~ Tasha Smith*

THE OBITUARY

Louise M. Smith was born on November 26, 1927 to her proud parents, Lucious McClinnhan and Julia McClinnhan who preceded her in death. She was the oldest of twenty-four children. She departed her life on November 8, 2019 at her home in Raeford, NC.
