

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of the late Mr. Anthony Singletary wishes to express their sincere appreciation to all their family and friends for all the prayers and acts of kindness shown to them during their time of sorrow.

May God continue to bless you.

THE FAMILY

God saw him getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
He wrapped him in his loving arms
and whispered 'Come with me.'

He suffered much in silence,
his spirit did not bend.
He faced his pain with courage,
until the very end.

He tried so hard to stay with us
but his fight was not in vain,
God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

Like A Ship

*Like a ship that's left its morning,
And sail bravely out to sea.
So someone dear has sailed away,
In calm serenity, but there's a promise,
Of greater joy than earth could have in store.
For God has planned a richer life,
Beyond the unseen shore.
Sleep on love one,
We love you, but God loved you best.*

The Family

*Sometimes there was the sunshine,
And sometimes there was the rain.
At times I was feeling good,
But at times I endured some pain.
But now I am so happy,
And all my pain has gone away.
For one sweet day God said to me;
Anthony, you are going home to stay.*

THE OBITUARY

Mr. Anthony Singletary was born on December 30, 1961 in New York City to the late Pearlie Mae Singletary Galberth. He transitioned from life here into his eternal rest on December 23, 2019 at First Health Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, NC.

Anthony, better known as “Peaches” or “Big Boy”, received his education in the Hoke County School System. He worked at Aro Manufacturing Company in Southern Pines, NC. He was a member of Faith Anointed Temple Church. He was known for his friendly and kindness in helping others with his smile.

He was preceded in death by his mother and one son, Travis.

Anthony leaves to cherish memories of his love to his wife, Deborah Singletary of the home; son, Derek T. Smith of Fayetteville, NC; aunt, Gladys Brunson (Pastor Robert Brunson) of Raeford, NC; uncles, Deacon Ernest Singletary (Viola) of Southern Pines, NC and Marion Singletary (Christine) of Wagram, NC; his mother-in-law, Dessie Mae Smith of Southern Pines, NC; special friends, Min. Darrel Heney, Eldert Walter Thomas, Pastor Willie Mae Graham and Lary Martin; many other relatives and friends.
