THE OBITUARY

Leverne Southerland was born on September 21, 1957.

Graduated high school in 1977, received a scholarship to Morris Brown College in Atlanta, GA. A big fan of Kobe Bryant and the LA Lakers and Minnesota Vikings fan.

Leverne leaves to cherish his memories: his parents; Ernestine Hattie Mae Blue and Jason Harrington; four children, Greg Rogers, Terrence McPhaul (Sharon), Renata McPhaul and Tonya Douglas (Jacob); his siblings, James Allen Southerland, Willie Mae Southerland, Kenneth Southerland, Tony Blue, Johnny Blue (deceased), Clyde Southerland (deceased); five grankids; special friend, Chasity Ferguson; two special nephews, Craig Southerland and John Southerland; a host of nephews and nieces; and a community of friends in Queenmoore.

Dear Dad

A lot of people came to know you as "Doc" but we knew you as Dad, a loving father who made us feel special, loved and valued. For all of our lives we were strongly bonded and a close family. We could always count on you to cheer us on or to cheer us up. You were always there happy and proud in our special moments. You were a very proud Dad and it showed. Dad in this life you carried a glow, had a unique energy that a lot of people wanted to be around. Your departure leaves a void that will never be filled. Your family, the Queenmoore community and all your dear friends will never forget you. You are irreplaceable and "one of a kind". Rest well Dad, we love you and will miss you incredibly. Until we meet again.

Terrence, Renata and Tonya
