

FLORAL BEARERS

Family & Friends

PALL BEARERS

Family & Friends

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family is forever thankful for your heartfelt prayers, comforting words, visitations, cards, floral arrangements and all other expressions of kindness extended to us during this time of bereavement.

May God bless all of you.

THE FAMILY

543 Vass Road • Raeford, NC 28376
(910) 875-3700 • www.buiesfuneralhome.com

"We Strive To Deserve Your Confidence"

Printed by CopyWright Printing Company
Aberdeen, NC (910) 944-1360 • Raeford, NC - (910) 875-6003

Home Going Celebration
For

Mr. Clarence Edward
BARNETT

Sunrise

April

24,

1

9

4

8

Sunset

March

30,

2

0

2

0

Monday, April 6, 2020
12:00 PM

BUIE FUNERAL HOME CHAPEL

Raeford, North Carolina

ORDER OF SERVICE

MUSICAL PRELUDE

PROCESSIONAL Pastor and Family

SCRIPTURES READING

Old Testament

New Testament

PRAYER OF COMFORT

SONG/SELECTION

OBITUARY READING

BRIEF SERMON Pastor

INDIVIDUAL TRIBUTE/REMARKS.....
..... Please limit to 2 minutes
Friends and Family

SONG/SELECTION

EULOGY

RECESSIONAL Pastor and Family

INTERMENT

Sandhills State Veterans Cemetery

April 7, 2020 • 12 Noon • Fort Bragg, North Carolina

THE OBITUARY

Clarence Barnett - 71, of Raeford, NC, passed away peacefully in his home on the morning of March 30, 2020. Clarence was born in Roxboro, NC on April 24, 1948 to the late Rivers Lee Barnett and James Waddell Barnett.

Clarence attended Person County High School in Roxboro, NC and later joined the United States Army. Clarence was a proud member of the United States Army, serving 21 years during which he fought in both the Vietnam War and the Desert Storm War before being honorably discharged as a 1st Sergeant, a title that he never took lightly.

Clarence retired from the United States Postal Service after being employed for 30 years as a Mail Clerk. He was a proud and diligent worker that took his job seriously.

He was a family man that his family could count on for anything, if you called on him, rest assure he will be there to help. He loved his family and would do whatever it took to comfort them. He was a man of many words and sometimes, he would give you tough love if he deemed it necessary, but at the same time making sure you are okay.

His love for basketball was out of this world, and he knew his stats about any team. So if you were courageous to step to him, you better come correct. He was fully committed to his March Madness sports. He also enjoyed cards with friends and family. If you knew Clarence, you also know that he loved music and dancing, even if that meant he was the only person on the dance floor, making him the life of any party. He will greatly be missed by his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rivers L. Barnett and James W. Barnett two brothers, James R. Barnett and Russell Barnett (Gladys, sister-in-law); one sister, Amelia Barnett; brothers/sisters-in-law, Pearl, Leslie, Pauline, Carnelia, Jenny, Bertha, Willie, Thomas and Herman.

Clarence is survived by his lovely wife, Doris Barnett; two daughters of New York City, Jacqueline Barnett and Karen Manigault; one granddaughter of South Carolina, Kimberly Harris; Ethel Singleton (sister), Elaine Coleman (sister), Eddie (brother-in-law), Julia Savoy (sister), George Barnett (brother). He also is remembered with love by four step-children, Andre, Jaqueline, Calvin and Michael along with his brother and sister-in-law, Alex McMillan, Catherine McCall; a host of other step-grandchildren, step-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond in the snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain,

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled light,

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

DO not stand at my grave and cry,

I am not there.