THE FAMILY

*Although you cannot hear her voice,
Or see her smile no more,
Your mother walks beside you still
Just as she did before.
She listens to your stories
And she wipes away your tears;*

*She wraps her arms around you,
And she understands your fears.*

*It's just she isn't visible to see with human eye,
But talk to her in silence and her spirit will reply.*

*You'll feel the love she has for you -
You'll hear her in your heart;
She's left her human body,
But your souls will never part.*

THE OBITUARY

Yvonne Delores King, the daughter of the Late Rosa Nell Edwards King and Lewis King was born December 27, 1959 in Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn NY. She departed this life on Saturday morning June 6, 2020 in her home.

Yvonne attended Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School through Junior High (Brooklyn,NY). She graduated with honors from Lincoln High School (Brooklyn,NY). Yvonne was also a member of Faith Deliverance church.

While in New York, Yvonne was employed with New York City Transit. In January 2008, she moved to Fayetteville, North Carolina following her parents and attended First Baptist church. She was the proud caretaker for her father, aunt & mother .

Yvonne was fondly called Von, Vonnie, Vandy and assumed the role of family boss !! She loved her three daughters and three grandchildren. There was nothing she wouldn't do for them. She loved to cook her brother Anthony's favorite: lima beans and ham hocks. You could always count on her for the best fried chicken and mac & cheese but her signature dish was lasagna. She always greeted you with a big smile and a tight hug. She was kind, loving and would give you the shirt off her back. Her past time was early morning and late night phone chats with her family. Yvonne would never miss a photo, if someone said "say cheese" she would be right there to pop her head into the shot.

She loved to shop "cross the river" and watch old western shows on television; A tradition that was passed down from her dad.

Yvonne Delores King leaves to cherish her memory three loving daughters: Tamera King Fayetteville, NC, Chevon (Maurice) Phifer of Reading,PA and Shadiyah King of Fayetteville NC; three grandchildren: Montavious King of Baltimore, MD, Kadar and Jada Phifer of Reading, PA; three brothers: Robert (Vanessa) Edwards, Elwood Edwards and Anthony (Renee) King all residing in Fayetteville NC.

Very Special mentions are the four women who were more like the sisters she never had: Donna Cunningham, Deborah Ingram, Iris Wilson and Rochelle Leak. She also leaves behind her longtime love Otis Primus and a host of beloved aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins she loved dearly.
