THE OBITUARY

Maggie Lee Luckie was born in Raeford, NC on June 20, 1939 to the late Pittie Peterkin and Clifton Harrison McMillian.

Maggie completed her general education diploma in 1992. In her early life, she was a domestic worker for Pecoia Family, and she also worked for the Jones Hill Day Care. In her life time, Maggie had cared for and was affectionately known as Grandma Maggie to her community where she influenced, encouraged and nutured many children.

Lifelong friend is Mrs. Magglene Bratcher, who she was raised up with and known as the Avon Lady. Fanny Mae Graham, affectionately known to her as Mother Fanny. Mr. Henry Lee Jones or Deacon Henry was also a lifelong friend; to her special nephew, James McMillian, Sr.

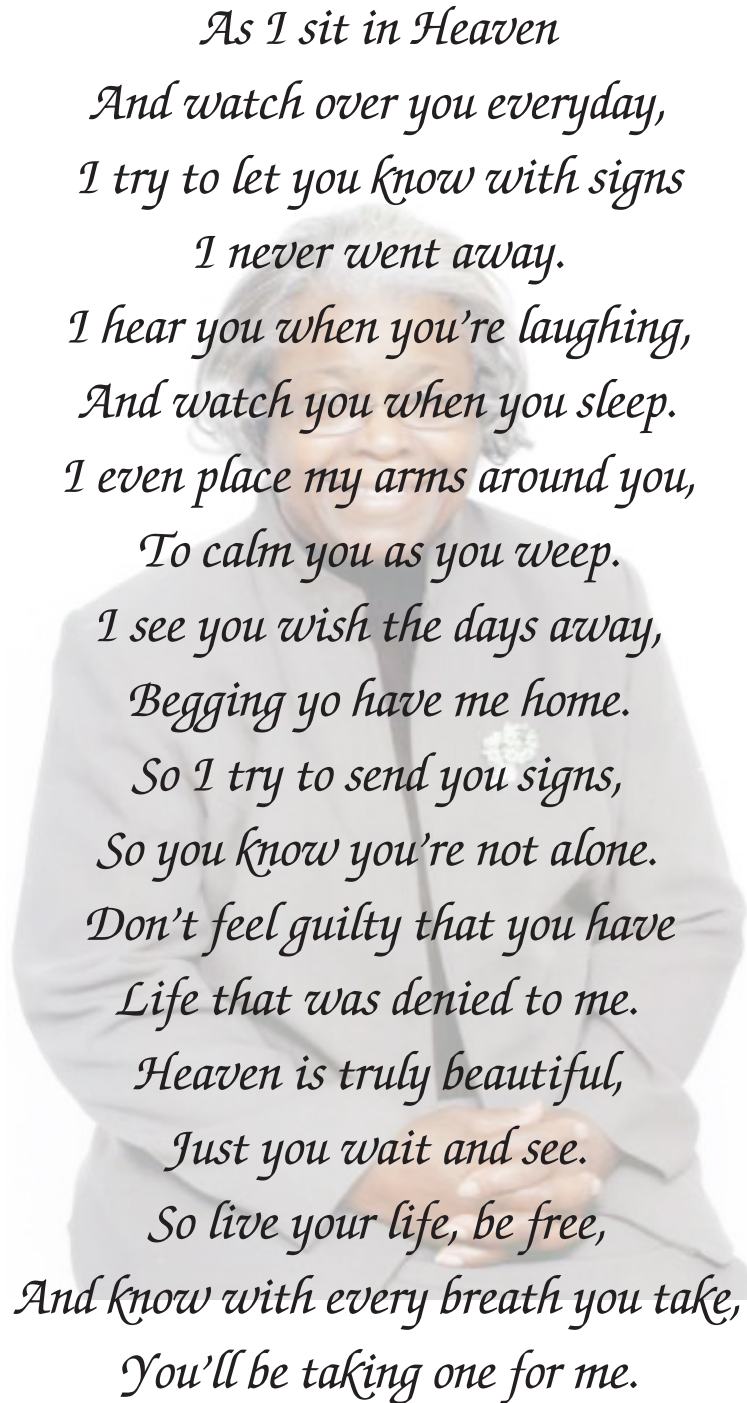

From a young age, Maggie had a special love for the Lord and accepted Christ as her personal Savior. She was a lifelong member of New Pilgrim Holiness Apostolic Church. She was a certified Sunday School Teacher, served on the Usher Board, and was also a Choir Member.

Maggie was married to Willie Luckie for well over fifty years and to this union came four generations starting with fourteen children. The word of God said in Proverbs 13: 22 — A good man leaves and inheritance to his children's children.

Preceded her in death: her children, Linda Sue McMillian and LeRoy McMillian; her sister, Annie Ree Jackson and her brothers, Lonnie Drusilla McMillian and Clifton Harrison, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories her children: Betty Monroe, Gregory and Kathleen Luckie, Joseph and Alfredia Luckie, Willie Bell Tart, Bertha Easter, Gerldine Luckie, Betty Jo Peterkin, Tyrone and Myra Luckie, Scottie and Brenda, KeShia and Nichole Mousey, Linda Blue and ToShenna Purcell; sisters, Mae Bell Strickland and Margret Lindsey; nineteen grandchildren, forty great grandchildren, seven great, great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*As I sit in Heaven
And watch over you everyday,
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away.
I hear you when you're laughing,
And watch you when you sleep.
I even place my arms around you,
To calm you as you weep.
I see you wish the days away,
Begging yo have me home.
So I try to send you signs,
So you know you're not alone.
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me.
Heaven is truly beautiful,
Just you wait and see.
So live your life, be free,
And know with every breath you take,
You'll be taking one for me.*
