

You're Free

Life is too short no matter how long you live.
In order to mend broken pieces, you must learn to forgive.
You laid there in that bed; you tried so hard to hold on.
But God was whispering softly, "With Me you belong".
He needed another angel to help pour out the rain.
The place that you're going has no suffering nor pain

Tears have fallen, hearts where shattered,
But it was time for you to fly home.
Know when you get there you will not be alone.
Your sister Coot will greet you;
Your brother Herman will be there too.
Oh wait, and there will be your son Terry,
Saying momma been waiting on you!

Your loved ones came to say their last good-byes,
Some spoke through the phone,
They wanted to tell you they loved you,
Before heaven became your home.

But oh, my Aunt O, I smiled on that day.
Knowing you were still able to chuckle through all of that pain.
When prompted by your God son, to hold on and watch TV.
I can hear you saying, "I love you", but I got places to be!

So now Aunt O, the laughter, fun times,
And your outspokenness will forever be missed.
No more worrying or pain, you have been set free.
I find comfort in knowing,
You are where you're supposed to be.
BE FREE!

By Your Niece, Lisa Johnson and
God-Son, Jerry Williams

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Moultrie Family would like to express their sincere gratitude for the support and kindness everyone has extended during this difficult time. We are eternally grateful.

It is our prayer that God continues to richly bless you all. Again, we thank you.

The Moultrie Family

Buie Funeral Home

543 Vass Road • Raeford, NC 28376
(910) 875-3700 • www.buiesfuneralhome.com

"We Strive To Deserve Your Confidence"

Printed by CopyWright Printing Company
Aberdeen, NC (910) 944-1360 • Raeford, NC - (910) 875-6003

A Celebration of the Life Of

Sister Ola Mae Moultrie

Sunrise

June 4, 1944

Sunset

February 8, 2021

Monday, February 15, 2021
1:00 PM

Buie Funeral Home Chapel

543 Vass Road • Raeford, NC 28376

Bishop Kenneth E. McNeill
OFFICIATING PASTOR

ORDER OF SERVICE

PRESIDING... Asst. Pastor Rosa McAllister McRae

SCRIPTURES READING

Old Testament....Evangelist Helen McCollum

New Testament*Reverend Curtis McLean*

PRAYER OF COMFORT . Pastor Jeffrey Gambrell

SOLO Latanasia Dockery

READING OF OBITUARY,

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS AND RESOLUTION: ...

..... Asst. Pastor Rosa McAllister-McRae

REFLECTIONS: (2 minutes please)

Vivian Gibson, Lamond Moultrie,

Jerry Williams

EULOGY Bishop Kenneth McNeil

RECESSIONAL

THE OBITUARY

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."

~ Matthew 11: 29

Sister Ola Mae Moultrie, daughter of the late Herman and Helen Moultrie, was born on June 4, 1944 in Raeford, NC. Sister Ola Moultrie transitioned on Monday, February 8, 2021 at her home in Hoke County.

Sister Ola was reared in Raeford, NC, and she received her education from the Hoke County School System. She was a graduate of Upchurch High School class of 1964. Ola was introduced to Christ at an early age and attended St. James United Church of God under the leadership of the late Bishop J. A. Jackson.

Later in her life, Ola moved to New York to explore life's possibilities. She was employed by The Fabric Garment until she retired. While living in New York, Ola was a member of Gates of Prayer Church under the leadership of the late Prophetess Dolly Lewis and later became a member of St. Matthews Glorious United Church of God, in Brooklyn NY, under the leadership of the late Bishop Matthew J. Graham. While there Ola served as the President of the Usher Board.

In 2011, Ola relocated home – to Raeford NC and joined Faith Tabernacle Glorious Church under the leadership of Bishop Kenneth E. McNeill and Pastor Louise McNeill where she was a faithful, committed, and dependable member until her health begin to fail. She was a dedicated and supportive classmate/ staff member of Upchurch Class of 1964 reunion committee, where she was appreciated for her services and demonstrated her gift of decorating. Ola was also a volunteer of the Tia Hart Community Outreach and Recovery Program. It was here that she met, loved, and served the Hoke County Community. Her service was done from the heart and all that met her became attracted to this lovable, outspoken fireball of a woman.

She will be remembered as a kind, loving, and outgoing person. Before her passing, Ola accepted the Lord as her personal Lord and Savior. Her presence will greatly be missed.

Ola was preceded in death by her son, Terry Moultrie; brother, Herman Moultrie, and a sister, Annie M. Moultrie.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: a special nephew/God son, Jerry (Jennifer) Williams of Raeford, NC, whom she loved, cared for, and supported since infancy; two additional God sons: Daryl Ray of Garner, NC and Jayden Jeremiah Williams of Raeford, NC; one God daughter, Pamela (O'Brian) McCoy of Baltimore, MD; two God brothers: Willie J. Purcell of Raeford, NC and Rev. C. Scott Williams of Brooklyn, NY; one God sister, Evangelist Helen McCollum of Raeford, NC; a dear aunt Margaret Lindsey; two special friends/care givers whom she loved dearly: Priscilla McLean Peterkin and Vivian Gibson both of Raeford, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends

