RECESSIONAL

*Don’t cry for me because I have been set free
I’m going to a place where you can see
That I have been chosen
For you to see that one day God will set you free
Prepare yourself so you can see me again
Not here in the streets but in God’s place
And plan the road I took was not narrow but straight
Get on board b4 it’s to late, don’t cry, rejoice and say
I will see you again some day in my new home
In th sky where only the Lord rules apply.
There will be no lights for you to see only the lights
From the golden gates will show you to my new address
In the sky cause it will no longer be Shaw Road it is now:*

The Obituary

Shantel Latoyla Graham was born August 23, 1983 at Southeastern Regional Memorial Hospital to Katie Graham (Troy) and Jeff Hunter. On April 17, 2021, God chose His precious angel to join His heavenly home. Our beloved Shantel Graham, a daughter, sister, mother, and friend.

She leaves to cherish her memories her son, Jadakiss Davis-Graham; her daughters: Zilaya Davis-Graham, Jamiya Graham and Serenity McCauley Graham; her mother, Katie Graham and her father Jeff Hunter; her sisters: Tonya Graham, Jeanella Graham, Jessica McCadney (Steven) and Myoshia Graham; her brothers: Christopher Graham (Melinda) and Antonio Demetrius Graham; her grandmother, Hattie Bell Graham; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and a very special boyfriend Benard McCauley.

Shantel loved her family and kids. She was a member of After God’s Own Heart Ministries of Lumber Bridge, NC, and a hard and faithful worker of Mountnaire Farms. During her spare time, she loved to shop online and ride with her sisters. When they say “let’s go” she ready to ride, no matter where they are going! Shontel stayed with a smile whether things are going good or bad she always made the best of it. She loved to help people in anyway she could give a helping hand. She was the sun that shined in the darkest of the darkest with her presence and her smile with anyone she has ever met.
