

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family is forever thankful for your heartfelt prayers, comforting words, visitations, cards, floral arrangements and all other expressions of kindness extended to us during this time of bereavement.

May God bless you and keep each of you as you travel the roads of life.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered

Joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life has been full, I've savored much

Good friends, good times,

a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart and share with me

God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

THE OBITUARY

James T. Walker was born on June 4, 1947 in Washington, DC.

He was drafted to the U. S. Army and was stationed at Fort Bragg, NC. He served 2 years then went to work for the post office, where he worked in Fayetteville, NC and Fort Bragg, NC over twenty years then retired.

James T. Walker enjoyed bowling, traveling, fishing, basketball and learning how to play golf.

Best part of his life was enjoying his family. He always came to the house ready to eat and chill outside or inside. We would watch football together, Cowboys versus Redskins. And always he would say before he left, "I love you son!".
