God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
and found an empty space.
He then looked down upon the earth,
and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
and lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful...
He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew that you would never be well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone,
for a part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

THE OBITUARY

Enoch Winston Leak, affectionately known as E.W. or "Tump", was born June 7, 1928 to the late James Leak and Bettie Jane Hennigan Leak. He went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, June 24, 2021. He was born in Raeford, NC.

He was married to the late Bertha Mae Handon Leak. He was a faithful member of Mt. Pisgah Missionary Baptist Church where he served on the Trustee Board for many years. He also sang on the church choir and men's choir. He especially loved the old spirituals. E.W. was a member of the Masonic East Freedom Lodge.

He attended school in Raeford, NC and went on to be a farmer for many years before retiring from Burlington Industries after about 40 years of service.

He leaves to cherish his memories three daughters: Betty Wilkins (Thomas), of Charlotte, NC, Rosia McBryde of Fayetteville, NC and Delois Whyte (Derrick), of Spring Lake, NC; four sons: Harold Evans of Hope Mills, NC, Marvin Evans (Richo), Hope Mills, NC, Martin Evans of Raeford, NC and Melvin Evans (Deborah) of Red Springs, NC; seventeen grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren; a special nephew, James Leak of Raeford, NC; a special friend who help take care of him, Derrick Garner of Fayetteville, NC. He is survived by one brother, John E. Leak of Spring Lake, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
