

This Life To Live

By Chris Clark

The silent mornings that aren't promised
We wake to a new beginning
The light to the path shines bright, no fear nor freight
The wind blows ever so slight against your face
This is the amazing race - Love, laughter and peace
Great company awaits at the feast
We are no longer plagued by the beast rather we are calm
No qualms, no indifference
In his presence we bear presents a gift of our heart
Pure in nature no longer in danger
Lay still in the quiet morning where He has led us to rest
Know that this is for the best
A release of our own self in to our Fathers hands
No more suffering, just peace, Peace
Be still in the quiet morning, our grief is no more
We release our mourning, we know where she is At the right hand of the Father, Peace
Our hearts are still in the quiet morning
No anxiety, no depression, only a life lesson
Taught through the spirit
Gone in the flesh vacant the vessel
A legacy left so special, one of caring, one of love
As you look down from above, teach us to love
Better to be true, to live with hearts pure
This is the cure - Your lessons were heard loud and clear
We relinquish the fear, no more tears
You are our comfort
We take joy in knowing That you're home
In the righteous place, God will hold your face
While we hold the faith
Living on you shall in our minds and our hearts
Your spirit will never depart, Peace
Peace be still in the morning
We release our mourning, no more tears, no fear
He has raised you up on eagles wings
We shall rejoice and sing
The blow was sudden and it stings
But we know you are a better being
In the hands of God, Peace
Peace be still in the morning
We release our mourning, no more tears, no fear
New life with new beginnings in the quiet morning
We lay you rest
With peace
So peace be still in the morning
No more mourning, no more tears, no more fear
Let us live by your example

The Obituary

Carolyn "Lynn" Thompson (Jackson)

was born in Florence, South Carolina on October 15, 1958 to the late Willie Jackson and Willa Mae Andrews. Carolyn died peacefully on Wednesday, August 11, 2021 in Raeford, NC at the age of 62.

Carolyn attended Wilson High School in Florence, SC. Carolyn lived a very fun outgoing life as she was always the life of the party. After moving to Raeford, NC in 1988 Carolyn began working for The House of Raeford as a Line Leader where she was a dedicated employee for over 20 years. Carolyn served as Sharp Steward, Chief Steward and Board Member for United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW) Local 204 union where she advocated for equal rights, fair treatment and pay in the workplace. Her implementation of the union helped many of the workers at the House of Raeford and Smithfield Chicken.

Carolyn helped anyone she came in contact with, she loved feeding others and making them laugh. She was a generous individual who did not meet a stranger and who was passionate about making others feel good. Her hard work and dedication was evident as it was passed down to her children. Her belief in doing things the right way was a sterling example for those who were around her to emulate. Carolyn was the glue to the family and always sought to keep everyone together regardless of their differences. Her forgiving spirit was greatly appreciated and she was loved by so many.

Carolyn's devotion to God was quite clear as she dedicated her life to Christ at a very young age and was an active and dedicated member of the Kingdom Living Worship Church of Fayetteville, NC since 2010.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her father, Willie Jackson; mother, Willa Mae Andrews; step-Mother & Father, Calvin & Louise (Peggy) Johnson; son, Derrick LaVell Jackson.

She is survived by her husband, Derrick Thompson; step-mother, Ora Lee Jackson (Willie); step-mother, Grace Cusack (Calvin); mother-in-law, Elsie Bowen of Raeford, NC; siblings: Ryan Egleton of Florence, SC, Rosie James of Fayetteville NC, Neil Hunter (Wanda) of Fayetteville, NC; sons: Maurice Jackson (Angela) Fayetteville NC, Omega Bacote; daughters: Jessica Monroe (Belton) Creedmoor, NC, Tracie Clark (Chris) Fayetteville NC, Tracella Bacote; aunts: Ernestine Simmons of Augusta, GA, Dicey Conage, Alfreda Grady and Betty Baker-Guzman of Tampa, FL; uncles: Jerome Andrews (Cynthia) of Florence, SC, William Andrews (Doris) of Columbia, SC; grandchildren: Dreshon, Demaree' Dezariyah, Devrae', Damir, Kristia, Victoria, Belton Jr., Nayah, Devon, Malek, Dayveon, Alexeus, Omeisha, Charity, Kashayla, Mi'Miracle; one great-granddaughter, Delilah; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins; close friends: Lionel Shephard, Thomasina Castillo, Arnetta McLean, Brenda Monroe, Debbie Day, Mary McCain, Darryl McRae, Jackie McCoy; extended children: Dotre McNeill, Latroy Reed, Wendell Jones and Frederick Bethea.

The family would like to give a special thanks to Dr. Amy G., Dr. Karen Smith, Bayada Home Health, nurse Latara McKoy, Kara McKay, Lincare and Dr. Thorton for their care and dedication during her health challenges.

Due to Covid restrictions there will not be a repast. The family would like to thank everyone for all the support in the way of calls, texts, flowers, prayers and encouragement.

Luke 6:37 ~ Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Don't Quit

*When things go wrong, as they sometimes will.
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill. When the funds are low and the debts are high. And you want to smile, but you have to sigh. When care is pressing you down a bit. Rest if you must, but don't you quit.*
