

Acknowledgment

We, the family of the late William Alonzo Brooks wish to express our sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness shown during the passing of our loved one. The visits, prayers, cards and telephone calls have not gone unnoticed and have given us strength and encouragement.

May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD
for ever.

An Eternal Memory

....Until We Meet Again
Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile
If only I could have you back
For just a little while
Then we could sit and talk again
Just like we used to do
You always meant so very much
And always will too
The fact that you're no longer here
Will always cause me pain
But you're forever in my heart
Until we meet again.

The Obituary

Mr. William "Bill" Alonzo Brooks was born on July 13, 1933 to Mr. Ruffing Brooks and Mrs. Inez Elliott Brooks.

William, affectionately known as "Bill", enlisted in the U.S. Army and assigned to the Infantry Division. Bill separated from the U.S. Army with an honorable discharge in May 1962.

On September 20, 1970, Bill and Gladys was joined in holy matrimony.

Bill leaves to cherish his memories: his wife of 50 years, Gladys Lloyd Brooks; two sons: Eugene James of Florida and Darryl Lloyd of New Jersey; two brothers: John Brooks of Fayetteville, NC and David Brooks (Brenda) of Oklahoma City; two brothers-in-law: John Lloyd (Janice) and Henry Lloyd (Hazel); four sisters-in-law: Daisy O'Bryant, Maggie Thomas, Mildred McCallum and Corina Lloyd; several nieces, nephews and friends.
