The Obituary

I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing. ~ 2 Timothy 2: 7-8

Roxie Lee Kilpatrick McLean was born to the late George and Mary Kilpatrick on August 26, 1939. She was the sixth of twelve children born to this union.

She was preceded in death by her brothers: James, Zenor, William and Joseph and sisters: Lossie, Catherine and Christine.

Roxie received her education through the Greenville Public School System. She graduated from C. M. Epps High School in 1957. She went on to attend Lyons Medical Laboratory School to become a medical assistant. She also studied business at Essex County College in 1975.

Roxie married the love of her life, Lacy T. McLean, who preceded her in death in 1998. Roxie and Lacy moved to East Orange, NJ where she worked for the Veterans Administration for over 14 years. Roxie and Lacy had two children: Lacy, Jr. and Wanda McLean.

Roxie’s loves were family and her knack for business. She joined the AVON team and remained faithful to the business for over 50 years. She received the honor of joining the Presidents Club in AVON. This was the highest award to a sale rep.

Roxie and Lacy returned to North Carolina in 1993. It was there where Roxie decided to branch out and open “The Get Acquainted Shop” in Fayetteville, NC and later relocated the business to Raeford, NC.

Roxie was preceded in death by her daughter, Wanda and husband, Lacy. Roxie was a faithful member at Bridges Grove AME Zion Church in Shannon, NC

Roxie leaves to cherish her son, Lacy Graham McLean and wife, Adrienne both of Fayetteville, NC; two brothers: Elbert Kilpatrick and wife, Sandra of Winterville, NC and Lasander Kilpatrick of Greenville, NC; two sisters: Mary Ferguson and husband, Joseph of Cumming, GA and Dalinda Kilpatrick of New Jersey; three granddaughters: Kendra, Tomeka and Lametris Graham of Raeford, NC; one grandson, Tyler Graham of Fayetteville, NC; one God-son, Reginald Pittman of Winterville, NC; as well as a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
