Acknowledgment

With sincere gratitude, we the family of Marion (Johnny) Singletary wish to express profound appreciation for Pastor McQueen and New Salem Missionary Church, all ministers, friends and family, thank you for many kind expressions of sympathy and concern extended to us at the passing of our loved one. Your kind words, your prayers, gifts, flowers, visitation and many other acts of kindness is appreciated and will always be remembered.

Keep us in your prayers as you will be in ours.
May God bless each of you.

In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you fade away:
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But, when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, and free from pain;
How could we wish you back with us,
To suffer that again.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go along;
For part of us went with you,
When GOD called you home.

Memorial Reflections

Mr. Marion Singletary Sr.,

AKA; Johnny, was born on December 13, 1946 in Hoke County to the late Mrs. Flora E. McBryde-Singletary and the late Mr. Ernest H. Singletary. Marion was raised by Mr. James and Mrs. Lena Harrington, whom preceded him in transition. He was preceded in transition by two brothers: Mr. Ernest Singletary and Mr. James Singletary and one sister, Mrs. Pearl M. Galbreath. Marion answered his Master's call on January 23, 2022 at Cape Fear Valley-Hoke. Although Johnny's transition was unexpected, his final days were spent surrounded by family and friends whom he had touched in numerous ways throughout his life.

Marion was born and grew to manhood in Hoke County. Marion was a man of few words, although quiet, humble and reserved, he loved life. Marion was a devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. He loved his family, his friends, family gatherings, the laughter, music, dance, food, tractors and the beach. Marion was a farm boy for life, farming was his career, and he enjoyed it and continued until the week prior to his transition. Something about them tractors and being out in the fields, must have not only given him peace but also purpose.

He leaves to cherish memories of his life, love and warm, humble spirit: his wife, Christine Singletary; five daughters: Jeannette Daniels-McQueen, Catherine Singletary (Anthony McNeill), Daisey (James) Alexander, Linda (Torino) Uzzell and Earline (John) Buie; four sons: Jimmy Daniels, Jerry Daniels (Marie), Okale Daniels and Marion, Jr. (Cassandra) Singletary; one sister, Gladys (Rev. Robert L.) Bronson; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Viola Singletary; one brother-in-law, Otis Daniels; seventeen grandchildren; three great grandchildren; plus one that he was anticipating her arrival in April; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

"Miss Me But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan.
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to a place aglow,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds.
Miss Me But Let Me Go.
