First Reading

Proclaimed by Monica Dutkiewicz

A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes .

There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

What profit have workers from their toil? I have seen the business that God has given to mortals to be busied about. God has made everything appropriate to its time, but has put the timeless into their hearts so they cannot find out, from beginning to end, the work which God has done.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23

Proclaimed by John Perry

My shepherd is the Lord; nothing indeed shall I want.

- 1) Lord, you are my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures where you give me repose.
Near restful waters you lead me, to revive my drooping spirit. (Refrain)
- 2) You guide me along the right path; you are true to your name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness, no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. (Refrain)
- 3) You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil, my cup is overflowing. (Refrain)
- 4) Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever. (Refrain)

Second Reading

Proclaimed by Jennifer Lindsey

A Reading from the Book of Revelation.

In John, saw a large white throne and the one who was sitting on it. The earth and the sky fled from his presence and there was no place for them. I saw the dead, the great and the lowly, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. Then another scroll was opened, the book of life. The dead were judged according to their deeds, by what was written in the scrolls. The sea gave up its dead; then Death and Hades gave up their dead. All the dead were judged according to their deeds. Then Death and Hades were thrown into the pool of fire. (This pool of fire is the second death.) Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the pool of fire. Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Proclaimed by Deacon Richard Hudzick

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel,
according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him,
she fell at his feet and said to him,

"Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said,

"Where have you laid him?"

They said to him,

"Sir, come and see."

And Jesus wept.

So the Jews said,

"See how he loved him."

But some of them said,

"Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?"

So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said,
"Take away the stone."
Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him,
"Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days."
Jesus said to her,
"Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?"
So they took away the stone.
And Jesus raised his eyes and said,
"Father, I thank you for hearing me.
I know that you always hear me;
but because of the crowd here I have said this,
that they may believe that you sent me."
And when he had said this,
he cried out in a loud voice,
"Lazarus, come out!"
The dead man came out,
tied hand and foot with burial bands,
and his face was wrapped in a cloth.
So Jesus said to the crowd,
"Untie him and let him go."
Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

Prayer of Saint Francis

Make me a channel of your peace,
where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord.
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace,
where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness—only light,
and where there's sadness, ever joy.

O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled, as to console,
to be understood and to understand,
to be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving of ourselves that we receive.
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Song of Farewell

May God welcome him in glory, and the Father's praise increase for the blessings given him at birth, for the love we shared with him on earth, God, grant him rest and peace. God, grant him rest and peace.

O Lord, we will surely wander, yet wherever we might roam, we remember how he laughed and cried, how his faith was firm and never died. Lord, bring him safely home.
Lord, bring him safely home.

The life we have lived is ending, and the world we know will cease, yet the love we lived is in our eyes, and the hope of heaven never dies, God grant him rest and peace.
God, grant him rest and peace.

Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song.
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, perfect delight.
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight.
Angels descending, bring from above
echoes of mercy, whispers of love. (Refrain)

Perfect submission, all is at rest.
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
watching and waiting, looking above.
Filled with his goodness, lost in his love. (Refrain)
