

I can't imagine the reunion with you and Anton Hill right now. I know he is showing you around Heaven and giving you a grand welcoming. I am thankful for the peace and joy that I know you are surrounded with.

You will be missed. Rest with the Angels Bro.

- Maile Wagner

Acknowledgements

The family of Quincy would like to thank everyone for their love, prayers and support. We would also like to thank my work family Outside In for sending meals and support which has meant a lot to us. Again, thanks from our family.

To send the family personal messages of condolence, please visit Quincy's online webpage guestbook at www.terryfamilyfuneralhome.com

Arrangements by
Terry Family Funeral Home

Quincy De'Shawn La'Rae Gill

Sunrise
April 15, 1980
Portland, Oregon

Sunset
December 11, 2019
Portland, Oregon

Homegoing Celebration

Friday, December 27, 2019 at 11:00 am
Genesis Community Church
5425 NE 27th Avenue
Portland, Oregon

Quincy De'Shawn La'Rae Gill was born to Marcia Martin and James Gill Sr., on April 15, 1980. He left our world on December 11, 2019.

Growing up in Portland, Oregon, he lived with his grandparents Thomas and Ira Lee Martin until he was a teenager. He attended Sabin Elementary and Madison High School.

He was the oldest of Marcia's children. Being the oldest is tough they say, but he was an awesome big brother. He liked his house just as clean as his cars, don't think you could leave a hand print and he wouldn't notice.

Quincy married Tracey Anderson and they had 3 of his 4 children. He loved being a Dad! He loved his kids and loved his family. He was an awesome father and would do anything for them. He worked as a caregiver, gas attendant, flagger and a construction worker. In his free time he loved being with his family and kids. You would also catch him driving, washing, moving or cleaning his cars.

Quincy had a love for old cars that grew as he got older. He was known to have 2 to 3 cars at a time, even though he couldn't drive them all at the same time. Anyone who knew him heard him pulling up and knew he had a joke for you even when you didn't want to hear it. Everyone had a nickname and he was always humming a tune. Now were not saying he was a saint, he had a mean streak but he aimed to make you smile. He was the most sweet, kind hearted man ever. Quincy is preceded in death by his two grandmothers Ira Lee and Patty Glen; father James Gill Sr.; aunts and uncles and his best friend Anton Hill.

Quincy leaves many loved ones to mourn his passing and continue to celebrate his life. Mother Marcia Brown, stepdad Lester Brown, Sister Marcia Gill, Brother James Gill (Stephanie), Adrian Gill (Yesenia), Nathan Gill and Derrick Willis, 4 children Krissy, Kyra, Quincy II and Kyree Gill. He also leaves a broken hearted Anastasia Moreno whom was his current girlfriend, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Order of Service

Prelude
Processional		Pastor Donald Frazier
Prayer
Scripture Reading	Old Testament	Psalms 23
	New Testament	John 14:1-3
Song Selection		Barbara Jean Hunt
Obituary Reading		Julie Mason
Cards & Condolences		Julie Mason
Song Selection		Barbara Jean Hunt
Remarks	(2 Minutes Please)	5 Family & 5 Friends
Eulogy		Treondaus Morman
Viewing
Recessional

Please join the family for a Repass immediately following the service

Pallbearers

Laketha Streeter	Herbert Streeter	Kevin Penn
Marco Streeter	Isiah Malone	Leon Wilkerson Sr.
James Bailey		Donald Brown

Honorary Pallbearers

Treondaus Morman	Anthony Morman	John Malone
Wayne Streeter	Jessie Streeter	Michael A. Gill Sr.