Obituary

Jasmin Monique Street was born on December 24, 1996 in Sanford, NC to Ms. Kimberly Street and Mr. Stacy Judd. She received her eternal wings on September 5, 2017 at Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, NC.

Jasmin was affectionately called “Missy” by her family and friends. She was loved and cherished by many. She was a 2015 graduate of Western Harnett High School in Lillington, NC and later attended Central Carolina Community College in Sanford, NC to pursue an associate degree in cosmetology.

Jasmin joined Restoration Through Christ Ministries as a young girl and was active with the teen ministry. She had a beautiful smile that immediately lit up a room when she entered. She loved to style hair and joke and laugh with her family and friends. She was employed with KFC as a teenager, Wendy’s and Sykes Communications.

Jasmin leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Kimberly Street of Cameron, NC and father, Stacy Judd of Broadway, NC; one sister, Alysa Kelly of Raleigh, NC; four brothers, Stacy Darrell Kelly of Lillington, NC, Angelo Judd of Lillington, NC, Jarias Raines of Sanford, NC and Jaylea Jameson of Winston Salem, NC; her grand-parents, Ms. Janice Street of Cameron, NC and grandfather, Mr. James Harper of East Orange, NJ; Lady Janie Pearson and Dr. Bishop James Pearson of Broadway, NC; four loving uncles, Pastor Tyrone Street (Patricia) of Cary, NC, Shawn Street (Lori) of Sanford, NC, Kevin Street of Cameron, NC and Leon Judd of Broadway, NC; two aunts, Leslie Street of Cameron, NC and Ruth Fredrick of Lillington, NC; three great aunts, Thelma Street, Effie Street and Jeanne McAuley (James) of Cameron, NC; one great uncle, Cornelius Street (Brenda) of Clarksville, TN; two nieces, three nephews, five special first cousins she cherished dearly: Kamiya Forbes, Tyrone Street, Jr., Shawn Street, Jr., Jordan Street, Brian Street and Jarvis Johnson; a special friend and classmate, Ebonee Gilchrist and a host of cousins and friends.
