Acknowledgements

The family of the late Jennifer Ninette Edwards is grateful beyond measure for the generous outpouring of tangible expressions and sympathetic concerns that have been extended to us. We believe that grief is lessened when it is shared, and your sharing this desolate period with us has made the pain easier to bear. Each act and deed brought us consolation during the passing of our loved one. May God continue to richly bless each of you.

Obituary

Ms. Jennifer Edwards was born on May 29, 1952 to Carl B. Edwards II and Beatrice Hargraves Edwards in Chapel Hill, NC. She departed this life on December 3, 2017 at UNC Health Hospice in Pittsboro, NC.

Jennifer attended the Chapel Hill City Schools and graduated in 1970. She attended Croft Business College. She worked several administrative jobs before retiring from Orange County Social Services.

Her favorite pastimes were: sewing, dancing, singing, and watching her favorite TV shows: Perry Mason and the Westerns. She was an avid Carolina Basketball and Football Fan. Jennifer joined St. Paul AME Church at an early age where she sang in the Beginners Choir and the Youth Choir.

She was preceded in death by, her parents; two brothers, Carlee D. Edwards and Carl B. Edwards III and one niece, Andranita (Angie) Edwards.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Lee Thomas Harris, Jr. of Durham, NC; one granddaughter, Leah J. Harris of Chapel Hill, NC; two brothers, Michael J. Edwards (Lila) of Fayetteville, NC and Gaylan S. Edwards of Chapel Hill, NC; six sisters, Etta J. Edwards, Kimberly C. Albright, Keith M. Edwards, Jennette L. Farrington (Wade J.), (her loving and devoted twin), Pier M. Edwards and Cheryl D. Edwards all of Chapel Hill, NC; three special friends, Bruce Parker Jr., Cord Smith and Carolyn S. Jingles.

He Only Takes the Best

God saw that you were getting tired,

A cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes,

we watched you suffer,

And saw you fade away.

Although we loved you dearly,

We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,

Hard working hands to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes "the best".
