

Mothers Never Really Die

Death beckoned her with outstretched hands
And whispered softly of an unknown land

But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know
She took death's hand without a fear,
For He who safely brought her here
Had told her He would lead the way
Into eternity's bright day...
And so she did not go alone
Into the valley that's unknown
She gently took death by the hand
And journeyed to the Promised Land...
And there, with steps so light and gay,
She polishes the sun by day
And lights the stars that shine at night
And keeps the moonbeams silvery bright...
For mothers really never die,
They just keep house up in the sky...
And in the heavenly home above
They wait to welcome those they love.

Obituary

Born Maytee Goldston on July 9, 1923 to the late Daisy Lee Goldston in Chatham County, Goldston, North Carolina.

Maytee’s name was changed to Mae Thedia Goldston at an early age. She was educated at Goldston High School, J.S. Waters High School, Macon Beauty College, the CA Nursing Department in Lee County Hospital, Sanford, North Carolina.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Hubert James Turner. This union produced five children: three sons, Galileo (Pone), James Hurley and Christopher all who preceded her in death. She later married to Colie Hubert Marsh. She was also preceded in death by her siblings, Lector Vaugh & Hansel Goldston.

Mae accepted Christ as a very young child. She was a faithful member of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church. She was a member of the usher board, choirs, Oppie Jones Sunday School Class, Eastern Star, the Sheriff’s Department and the Nurse’s Department. She enjoyed sewing and caring for the ill.

Survivors left to cherish her precious memories are two daughters, Janice Bentley (Calvin J.) of Lizella, Ga. and Brenda Williams-Price (Larry) of Durham, NC; twelve grandchildren, Tanniyvonne, Darryl (Patty), Calvin II (Linda), Deundray (Felicia), Shonte’ (Donald), Billy, Jr., Kenyant, Kristin, Laurin, Christopher (Tiffany), Justin (Monisha) and Jonathan (Crystal).; twenty eight great grand-children; eleven great great grand-children; one niece, Joan Wood; a special great nephew, Jimmy Wood (Diane); god sons, Floyd Wicker (Evelyn), Bennie Wicker (Arnita), Albert Alston (Susan); daughters-in-law, Emma and Lisa Turner; sisters-in-law, Annie Bell Fearington (John T.) and Maxine Headen; brother-in-law, Lynn Marsh; a life time friend, Annie Mae Hall and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
