Obituary

Lillie Mae Burnette was born September 20, 1925 to the late Johnnie and Lecy Alston in Chatham County, North Carolina. Her health slowly declined and God finally called her home April 5, 2018 after 92 ½ years.

Lillie was known for her work in the community and her integrity. She addressed issues and situations as she saw them. A woman that loved God and was outspoken, loving and caring with a heart of gold.

Lillie was married to the late Henry G. Alston who departed this life on October 30, 1964. Then she was united with Richard “Buster” Burnette who departed this life on April 29, 2002.

Lillie confessed Christ at an early age and joined Mitchell Chapel AME Zion Church and remained a faithful member until her health declined. She served on the Usher Board, Pastor’s Aid, Missionary, Conference worker, Homecoming Committees, Stewardess Board and Class Leader.

Her two sons, Frank Henry and William Eddie along with her 15 siblings preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: grandchildren: Henry Alston (Lois) of Pittsboro, NC, Erika Green (Johnny) of Youngsville, NC, Kendrick and William Alston of Pittsboro, NC; great grandchildren: Patrick and Roderick Alston, Jared Richmond (Alexis) all of Pittsboro, NC; great-great grandchild: Jayden Richmond; daughters-in-law: Helen Alston and Mary Alston of Pittsboro, NC; brother: Joseph Alston (Fleta) of Durham, NC, sisters-in-law: Ruth Alston and Hazel Alston of Pittsboro, NC, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
