

Miss Me But Let Me Go

Miss Me, But Let Me Go.
When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little--but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

Acknowledgements
Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Pearl Gillis Brower, fought a good fight, kept the faith, and received her crown in glory on Tuesday, July 3, 2018 at Liberty Commons Nursing and Rehabilitation Center of Lee County.

She was born in Harnett County, NC on September 2, 1926 to the late Rosie King.

She attended Spout Springs Presbyterian Church, Cameron NC for several years and later joined Covenant Christian Church, Southern Pines, NC. She served faithfully in various capacities.
