Loved Ones In Glory

*Would you wish loved ones in glory
Back to suffer, here on earth?
Would you deny them of their peace,
And of their rich heavenly birth?
Have faith in Christ; He will bless you
He'll not heedless pass you by
But will bring to you His blessing
When He hears your humble cry.
Faith in Him wins His attention
For in Him you'll find a Friend;
Patiently, He stands waiting,
Where there're broken hearts to mend.
Even when the day is saddest,
And with pain the heart does bleed,
In God's word we find much comfort,
As from its pages we read.
In the Bright Beyond God's Children,
With Him will forever dwell
Let none wish them back to suffer,
They're at Home and all is well.*

Obituary

The season of life of Mariah Ann McNeill Washington was born on October 17, 1940 in Raleigh, NC to the late Elder Bran McNeill. On August 10, 2018 at approximately 1:30 am, Ann departed her life.

Ann joined Union Grove United Methodist Church at an early age and was a faithful member until her health declined. Her church affiliations included: serving as the church membership secretary, Mission Outreach, Pastor Parish Relation Committee, Board of Trustees, and served on the Kitchen Committee.

Ann received her early school training in the Harnett County Public School System and graduated from Johnsonville High School. After graduating from high school, Ann joined the workforce and worked approximately thirty years before her retirement.

Ann was married to the late Harry Washington Sr. and to this union, four children were born; Harry, Christopher, Darryl and Belinda.

Ann was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Washington Sr.; two sons, Harry Washington Jr. and Christopher Washington.

Ann leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Mrs. Belinda Rhodes (William) of the home; one son, Darryl Washington (Sherrie) of Charlotte, North Carolina; four grandchildren, and one great grandchild; a special aunt, Mrs. Nellie Brewington of Fayetteville, North Carolina; four sisters-in-law, and one brother-in-law; special sister, Betty Pearson of Sanford, NC and a special friend, Nancy McNeill of Broadway, NC. She also leaves a host of other relatives and special friends.
